
Purple Prickly Pear Opuntia santa-rita Native of Sonoran, Chihuahuan Deserts	10degs reflected very low	moderate 4 by 5 shrub like	evergreen green-purple tan spines	yellow spring	cold or dry weather causes pads to take on purplish color
---	---------------------------------	----------------------------------	---	------------------	--

Argentine Giant Trichocereus huascha Native to Argentina	10degs sun/shade moderate	moderate 2 by 3 sprawling	evergreen medium green yellow spines	white blooms at night	giant, fragrant flowers
--	---------------------------------	---------------------------------	--	-----------------------------	----------------------------

Succulents

Lechuguilla Verde Native to Sonora and Chihuahua	20degs sun/shade low	moderate 3 by 3 open rosette	evergreen dark green coarse	yellow late winter to spring	reddish brown marginal teeth are attractive
--	----------------------------	------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	------------------------------------	---

Smooth Agave Agave desmettiana	25degs sun/shade low	fast 3 by 3 open rosette	evergreen light green coarse	bright yellow spring	attractive
-----------------------------------	----------------------------	--------------------------------	------------------------------------	-------------------------	------------

Twin-flowered Agave Agave geminiflora Native to west central Mexico	25degs full low	fast 3 by 3 open rosette	evergreen dark green coarse	yellow winter	smooth margins, sharp spines
---	-----------------------	--------------------------------	-----------------------------------	------------------	---------------------------------

Parry's Agave Agave parryi Native to Arizona, Chihuahuan Desert	15degs full low	slow 2 by 2 compact rosette	evergreen gray-green coarse	bright yellow summer	decorative, sharp tips
--	-----------------------	--------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------	---------------------------

Weber's Agave Agave weberi	12degs sun/shade low	moderate 6 by 6 open	evergreen blue-green coarse	yellow spring to summer	smooth margins, sharp spines
-------------------------------	----------------------------	----------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------	---------------------------------

Cape Aloe Aloe ferox Native to South Africa	25degs sun/shade low	moderate 5 by 3 upright Rosette	evergreen blue-green coarse	orange-red spikes, winter to spring	flower spikes attract birds
---	----------------------------	--	-----------------------------------	---	--------------------------------
