

Danielle Todesco

Danielle Todesco was born and raised in Albuquerque. She joined KOB in 2011. She was ecstatic at the opportunity to report and anchor in her hometown after spending a few years working in neighboring states.

After graduating Magna Cum Laude at the University of New Mexico with a degree in Broadcast Journalism, she started her journalism career at a television station in Lubbock, Texas.

She also worked for the NBC affiliate in Tucson, Arizona, before coming home to New Mexico.

You can catch Danielle anchoring KOB Eyewitness News 4 Today from 4:30 to 7:00 a.m. every weekday. She also anchors KOB Eyewitness News 4 Midday.

Danielle has reported on a wide array of topics in our state. In the morning, she has become known for the popular DIY Danielle segments, which show off her home improvement skills.

When Danielle is not working, she loves to spend time with family. She is excited to work on what she calls the “Mom” shift in the mornings, to be able to spend time with her young daughter Ella and her husband Cody. If you see her out in the community, say hello!
