

Terry Michael Sermons

BOSSIER CITY, LA. - Services for Mr. Terry Michael Sermons, 29, of Bossier City, will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday January 2 at Ingleside Baptist Church, with the Rev. Crawford Williams, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial will be at Lakeview Cemetery in Oil City, La. Plans are under the direction of Rose-Neath's Bossier Chapel.

Mr. Sermons, a lifelong resident of the Shreveport area, died Sunday Dec. 30, 1984, in Sulphur Springs, Texas from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Terry, a graduate of North Caddo High School, was employed by Sunbeam Corp. of Coushatta, La. Terry and his wife were active members of Ingleside Baptist Church where he served as a deacon.

He is survived by his wife, Janis Bethea Sermons; his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J.L. Sermons, Shreveport; two brothers, James L. Sermons, Jr., Haughton, La., David Sermons of Colmesneil, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. W.S. (Dianne) Taylor, Haughton, Donna Gayle Sermons, Shreveport; two nieces, four nephews, several aunts, uncles, cousins, a host of friends.

Pallbearers: Gary Ponder, John Cross, Mac Reinhart, Tommy Walters, Lawson Myrick, Bo Allen.

Honorary pallbearers: The deacons of Ingleside Baptist Church.