Q: What is happening with State Exams, Regents Exams, and AP Exams?

A: Currently, the Middle School State Exams are postponed. Regents are still scheduled to take place in June. AP Exams will be taken online; your scholar's AP teacher will reach out with more information.

Q: My son is supposed to be graduating. Will he still be able to graduate?

A: As long as your scholar completes his coursework in Google Classroom, he will still be on track to graduate in June.

Q: My son is supposed to be receiving IEP services. How will he receive those?

A: All your scholar's service providers will be in touch with you through Google Classroom / your son's eagleacademybk e-mail.

Q: I was supposed to attend an IEP meeting for my son. Is it still happening?

A: Yes. Mr. Jones or Mr. Aruz will be in touch about doing the meeting over the phone.

Q: My son was supposed to attend a trip or internship. Is it still on?

A: Currently all trips are canceled for the remainder of the school year. Internships are postponed until school buildings re-open.

Q: I have another question not addressed in this FAQ. Who should I reach out to?

A: Please see the list of all Eagle staff e-mails HERE. Choose the person you want to speak to and send them an e-mail with your inquiry. If your question is about specific assignments or accessing a class, please reach out directly to your scholar's educator.
