WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship: Plan Wisely

What would happen if you found out right now that relatives of yours were coming into town tomorrow to stay with you? You can either tell them they can't stay with you, or you immediately go into panic mode!

We spend much time putting off things until later. Then when something unexpected happens, we swing into action to deal with it or prepare for its effects. We would have acted differently if we knew what was coming down the road.

What does your stewardship way of life look like? Are you living as if you have forever, or are you living as if Jesus could return any moment and your life here on earth could end tomorrow? The gift of time is often taken for granted. If we live more mindfully of that gift, we waste less of it and maximize the moments in which we find ourselves. The gift of tomorrow is not promised to you, but the gift of today has already been given. Use this day wisely because who knows what tomorrow may bring.

Diocesan Bulletin Bite:

“For where your treasure is, there also will be your heart.”

The trash we put on the curb to be discarded reveals much about who we are and what we do. It contains the packaging of the products that we treasure. It reveals where our heart is. What is in our trash? Is it packaging from the latest electronic games; the best type of athletic equipment; the current fashion in clothes [no matter how revealing]; the appliances with the most features; containers that held gourmet foods; too many empty liquor bottles and beer cans; and the shredded documents of the fortune we are trying to amass? There are some people whose hearts are not revealed by their trash. They have no trash. Sadly, they have nothing to throw away. They do not have sufficient food and they have very little clothing. We would do well to remember the words of Jesus, “Much will be required of the person who has much, and still more of the person entrusted with more.” When we bring our trash to the curb we should ask, “How much treasure have I been entrusted with and what does this trash reveal about my heart?”
