with spin setting which effectively breaks up the lines of forward front and main armament. (MOD.) 93. A dramatic view of Chieftains of the Life Guards as they advance through the evening mist during the typically foul weather of Exercise 'Spearpoint 80'. (MOD.) 94. Throughout its career, Chieftain has been progressively improvements. This is being achieved by the Chieftain Improvement Programme (CHIP) which will allow Chieftain to continue in front-line service throughout the 1990s. The principal improvements are the Improved Fire Control System (IFCS) and an Armour Penetration Fin Stabilised Discarding Sabor round which, taken together, greatly increase firepower. (MOD.)
