WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship:

As I get older, what really matters to me changes. Time, circumstance, wisdom, and even disillusionment all play a part in my ever-changing attitude toward what really matters in life.

All has changed except my faith. My faith is the one constant in my life. It is the most precious of all the gifts God has given to me. Life hasn't been a constant high, and there have been several low valleys along the way. It has been my faith that has seen me through all times, good and bad. If anything has changed, it is that Jesus matters more today than he did yesterday.

What really matters to you? What's the main thing in your life? I have witnessed once-strong disciples place politics, wealth, career, and family ahead of Jesus over time. All those things are enticing, but they are things that change. Even your family grows and changes as the years go by, as does your relationship with them. The one thing that does not change is God. God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. It can bring great peace to your life when what matters to you is the one thing that remains constant. That main thing is Jesus.

"I wish to create a church so beautiful that it would move even the hardest heart to prayer."

This is a quote attributed to an unknown architect of the Glastonbury Abbey. Of course he would primarily be thinking of architectural beauty, but true beauty in all forms always moves our hearts toward God. The beauty of a song or a painting or a building can be a powerful tool for evangelism; even more so the beauty of a life lived in true holiness! Especially for the 'hard hearted' who can no longer hear the voice of God in other ways. Many have lost faith in truth and goodness, but beauty has a way of breaking through all of our skepticism and doubt and captivating us in a single moment. May the beauty of Christ be reflected in each of our lives and in our parish so that all may come to know Him.

Save the date Tuesday, August 27th for our Musician's Potluck 6-8 pm in the parish hall. All are welcome! Tuesday evening choir practice will resume the following Tuesday.

FUTURE PLANS: We will be shifting gears this up coming FALL. St. Pius X Young Adults are joining a program called I.D. 9:16, as we will become a chapter here in Owensboro. This is a fantastic opportunity that our leadership team is SUPER excited for as it will help us create an identity as to what this ministry will look like. We currently have myself, Alex Castlen, Mariah Castlen, Emily Ferguson, and Josh Campbell as members of our leadership team. THAT BEING SAID. WE NEED 4-5 MORE to make this the perfect ideal. If you would like to join please let one of us know. More info on I.D. 9:16 will be coming soon so STAY TUNED!!

Diocesan Bite: "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?"

When Jesus visits the home of Martha and Mary the two sisters take completely different courses of action. Martha begins to prepare food and refreshments for her guest. Mary gives her full attention to what Jesus has to say. Both are doing a good thing. Martha is fulfilling the responsibility of a good host according to the custom of her time by caring for the visitor to her home. Mary is demonstrating her strong interest in what Jesus has to teach her. When Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is not helping her to do the serving, Jesus says that Mary has chosen the better part. Jesus is not criticizing Martha for performing her duty as a host for a guest. But he is saying that his message is important and that it is good for Mary and others to learn from him. Jesus certainly appreciated the meal Martha was preparing for him, but his response to her means that spiritual food is more important than physical food. We must care of our spiritual life, then care for our physical life. Which life do we care about the most?

The annual barbecue and picnic will be held at Blessed Sacrament Chapel, 602 Sycamore St. on Saturday, August 3rd. Drive-through for meat (ribs, chicken, pulled pork) will be 11-1:30. Pre-orders are now being taken. Served dinners, silent auction, inflatables and children games, bingo, cake walk, and raffle ticket sales will be 12 noon to 3:30 pm. If you have questions or want to pre-order meat, please call 270-926-4741.
