

Melody Bianchetto

Vice President for Finance
University of Virginia

Melody Bianchetto, a Certified Public Accountant, was named the Vice President for Finance at the University of Virginia in 2015. She oversees the functions of financial accounting & reporting, planning & analysis, and training & compliance, as well as research administration, student financial services, and procurement and supplier diversity services. She is the executive sponsor for a university-wide data warehouse and business intelligence tool implementation. Melody began her UVA career as a budget analyst in 1996, after working at EY in Washington, D.C. and Henderson & Everett, PC in Charlottesville.

Melody earned a BS in Commerce at the University of Virginia and a Master of Business Administration from James Madison University. Melody has completed numerous leadership programs, including the Charlottesville/Albemarle Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Charlottesville in 1995, the Virginia Network for Women in Higher Education's Senior Leadership Seminar in 2006, the Commonwealth of Virginia's Executive Institute in 2009, and UVa's Leadership in Academic Matters program in 2012.

Melody presents regularly at organizations such as the National Association of College and Business Officers (NACUBO), serves on the Eastern Association of College and University Business Officer (EACUBO) finance committee, and received NACUBO's 2014 Rising Star Award.

Melody serves as the treasurer for the Virginia Network for Women in Higher Education and the World Peace Game Foundation.