

A bylaw of the Resort Village of Echo Bay to control the collection, storage, and disposal of liquid wastes.

Under Section 83 of the Public Health Act, Chapter P-37, R.S.S. 1978, the Resort Village of Echo Bay in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

1. In this bylaw the expression -
 - a) "Administrative Authority" means a Medical Health Officer or Public Health Inspector;
 - b) "Householder" means occupant, lessee, or tenant, or the person otherwise in charge of any dwelling, hotel, restaurant, apartment block, office building, public institution, or other premises;
 - c) "Liquid waste" means any waste which contains animal, mineral, or vegetable matter in solution or suspension;
 - d) "Local Governing Authority" means the council of the Resort Village;
 - e) "Storage or Holding Tank" means a tank constructed of a material that is equivalent to the requirement set out in the Provincial Plumbing Regulations, designed to collect and hold liquid waste without treatment prior to transporting such waste to a final point of disposal;
 - f) "Privy vault" means a storage or holding tank placed under an outside toilet for confinement and storage of human excrement only.
2. This bylaw shall apply to all lots and parcels of land within the boundaries of the Resort Village of Echo Bay.
3. Any person installing storage or holding tanks for the purpose of storing liquid wastes, located in areas identified in Section 2 of this Bylaw, must first obtain approval to do so from the administrative authority.
4. All householders whose premises are located in areas identified in Section 2 must provide an approved storage or holding tank to receive liquid wastes emanating from their premises.
5. All new facilities for the storage of liquid wastes, located in areas identified in Section 2, shall comply with this bylaw and any amendments thereto or revisions thereof.
6. Existing facilities for the storage of liquid waste shall be required to comply with this bylaw at a time and extent specified by the administrative authority and the local governing authority.
