

Haywood Lodge will be hosting our annual Thanksgiving Dinner at each of our facilities. Spicewood Cottages will be serving on Tuesday, November 20 at 12:00 p.m. Haywood Lodge and Creekside will be serving on Wednesday, November 21 at 12:00 p.m. This provides an opportunity for our residents to enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving meal with their family members while we do all the cooking. This also gives us a chance to say thank you for trusting in us by giving us the opportunity to care for your loved one. The meal is free of charge but we do request that you sign up before Saturday, November 17. There will be a sign up sheet at each nurses station or you may contact:

Haywood Lodge- Alice or Tammy 456-8365

Creekside- Cricket or Judy 456-9240

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Teresa "Lynette" Wright is Creekside's resident of the month. She came to Creekside for respite care. It is amazing how well she has progressed while she has been with us. She graduated from Tuscola, went to HCC to become a R.N., and worked at Haywood Regional Hospital for 19 years. She thoroughly enjoyed her work caring for people. Because Lynette is doing so well she is going to be moving out before long. She has a house and is in process of getting some furniture and getting it fixed up. Her father and two brothers have been a great help to her. Even though all of us are going to miss her very much we are excited for her at the same time.

Congratulations Lynette!!

Congratulations to Johnnie Simmons for being chosen as Spicewood's resident of the month. He resides in the Elms and has been with us for 3 years. He is very friendly and polite. When you pass him in hall or outside he will always say "hello" or "have a great day". Stonepoint, NC is where he was born and raised. His job history consists of furniture production, hog farming and he also worked at Starvin Marvin on Soco Mountain. Johnnie enjoys activities such as Bingo, going on outings and shopping. We are glad he chose to be a part of our big family.

This month Haywood Lodge has chosen two residents of the month, a husband and wife, Jane and Bill Bird. Between the two of them they share five children. They have been married for 42 years. Bill was the superintendent of two different school districts. He retired from the Haywood County school district. Jane was a principal for a school in Bill's district and that is how they met and from there they got married. Jane still drives so they go out to eat quite often and go places they enjoy. She enjoys quilting and being with her friends. They both enjoy walking. Everyday they walk around facility. When they get tired they will take a break and sit and talk to staff and other residents then get up and take off again.

Funny Thanksgiving Quotes

"I come from a family where gravy is considered a beverage." Erma Bombeck.

"An optimist is a person who starts a new diet on Thanksgiving." Iry Kupicinet

"The thing I am most thankful for at Thanksgiving is elastic waistbands.

"It's not the minutes spent at the table that put on weight, it's the seconds.

"My cooking is so bad my kids thought Thanksgiving was to commemorate Pearl Harbor." Phyllis Diller.

"Thanksgiving dinners take 18 hours to prepare. They are consumed in 12 minutes. Half-times take 12 minutes. This is not a coincidence." Erma Bombeck

Not what we say about our blessings,
but how we use them,
is the true measure of our Thanksgiving.

Employee of The Month

Sarah Francis is our much deserved employee of the month for November. She is part of the day crew at Haywood Lodge. She is the loving mother of two children, a son and daughter. Sarah doesn't have but one speed and that is wide open. She is very efficient and an excellent coworker. While working with the residents she jokes and cuts up with them but at the same time she can be compassionate when she needs to be. We are very fortunate to have her on our team.

Congratulation Sarah!!

Marietta Austin's children along with the residents and staff at Haywood Lodge celebrated her 96th birthday with her. We had a delicious cake the family brought and music was provided by "The Piano Man". It was a really good time.

JANE STONER TURNS 101

Haywood Lodge would like to recognize Jane as our oldest resident. She has been with us for almost 6 years and it has been a pleasure having her as part of our family. Jane's daughter, Kaaren, celebrated her birthday with a party at her house with a few friends.

All of the residents and staff at Creekside Villas are excitedly awaiting the arrival of Gracie Mae, the daughter of Micheala and Jesse Lowdermilk. Micheala works at Creekside. Check us out next month for the news of the birth..

Daylight-saving time ends

- Turn your clock back one hour tonight before going to bed.
- It's also time to change batteries in your smoke detectors.

Employee Recognition

We would like to recognize Linda Adams for 15 years of dedicated service to Haywood Lodge and Retirement Center. Not mentioning her age, she could have retired years ago but she loves us and can't bear the thought of leaving. On a serious note, Linda is an excellent cna and when she is here the work gets done.

Activities Corner

October, November and December is a busy time for the staff and residents at all the facilities, but we love it. It starts out with autumn coming to town and the residents going leaf looking and making scarecrows. Creekside and Spicewood went to the parkway and Waterrock Knob checking out the colors. They got to come back by Barber's Orchard and get some cider and apple snacks. Haywood Lodge residents made two of the cutest scarecrows and named them Emily and Aaron. Come by and visit them, they are on front porch rocking and greeting all of the visitors. The residents got to make jack-o-lanterns to display for Halloween. A big thank you to the residents, family members, staff and Aaron for donating Candy for all the spooks and goblins. Haywood Lodge has already started making hand made decorations for their own special Christmas tree. As always we thank our volunteers for the time they spend with our residents. It is for a good cause. If you have ever thought that maybe you would like to do some volunteer work we would love to have you. You may come in or call the following numbers to find out more about it.

November Birthdays

Missy Odum Nov 4
Susan Youse Nov 27

I have always been interested in how the Poppy flower became part of Veterans Day. In April 1915 near Ypres, Belgium some of the heaviest fighting during World War 1 took place. The soldiers killed during this fighting were buried in improvised graves. There were poppies blooming in that field among the crosses on the graves. Since then the Poppy has become the flower of remembrance for the soldiers of U.S., Britain, Canada, and other Commonwealth countries who have died in war.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you’re finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you’re trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history.

You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
