This perfectly poised wine is full of pear and green apple flavours. A generous wine with punchy fruit and excellent balance with bright acidity

German Red

92. Binz Bratt, Pinot Noir/Cabernet Sauvignon, Pfalz, 2014

£29.25

Crimson red with purple tinges, the nose is reminiscent of dark fruits with a hint of wood. On the palate it is a smooth, full-bodied wine with notes of strawberry, black currant and well integrated oak; soft tannins provide structure and aging potential and give the wine a long finish

Fresh and elegant wine of fine structure and attractive fruit aromas, followed by pronounced minerality, with a hint of bitter almond aftertaste. The wine has unusual longevity for its style. Ageing in the bottle brings more herbal and floral notes to the fore.

Darren Owers, Nugan Estate winemaker, does not enjoy big buttery, oaky chards. So they pick their fruit at night to preserve the crisp and bright aromatics and flavours which are present when the fruit is cooler.

103. Rooks Lane Shiraz, Victoria 2016 £4.95 £6.75 £9.50 £14.00 £25.75
The nose is all ripe berries, black cherries, vanilla and spice, the sweet fruit flavours rich and juicy, with blueberry and cherry characters and a deft touch of oak, signed off by a nice savoury aftertaste.
104. Springhill Merlot, Irvine, Eden Valley, 2015 £32.75
Plums, raspberry, chocolate and a little vanilla oak all beautifully balanced. Simply stunning!
105. Los Hermanos Homenaje Crittenden Estate 2013 £29.75
A blend of Tempranillo (42%), Mataro (38%) and Grenache (20%). Characters of plums, cherries and Spice fill the nose. The Aromas lead into a firm dry palate of blackberries and dark chocolate. In Spanish terms this wine has been produced in the "joven" or youthful style- meaning it exhibits only the vibrant fruit characters of Tempranillo without the encumbrances of sweet or toasty oak.
106. Baby Bush Mourvedre 2011 £29.25
The vineyard was established with cuttings from the 1853 mourvedre planting (the oldest in the world); light, bright crimson, the medium-bodied palate has attractive red berry, spicy fruit, with none of the fearsome tannins the variety can produce.
107. Elderton Estate Shiraz, Barossa Valley 2014 £32.75
Plum, blackberry and brambles dominate here. The palate is smoothly-textured and although the concentration is equal to the Greenock One, the wine is more opulent with a rounder, velvety more approachable feel. Fruit and spice linger on the finish.

"Pristine Pinot Gris with lovely fruit purity and classic fresh pear juice, elderflower and chalky mineral flavours. Lingering a linear with impressive power. Made in an off/dry style but with enough acidity to generate a fairly dry finish. Lovely wine."

121. Hochar Père et Fils, 2012 O £30.75
Thought of as the second wine of the famed Musar estate, the wine shows an intense burgundy colour with a complex nose of black fruits backed up by figs, dates and spices. The palate is well integrated with good acidity, fine tannins and a good length.

122. Chateau Musar, 2007 O £47.75
Astonishingly complex, with lots of secondary characteristics; leather, spice and earth complementing the sweet and tangy red fruit.

Israeli Red

123. Recanati Wild Carignan Reserve, Judea Hills, 2014 £37.75

The wine has a deep dense purple colour. On the nose it is intense and complex, discreetly oaked with classical warm peppery and red fruit aromas. On the palate the wine is full bodied, well balanced, and spicily fresh with good acidity and well integrated tannins. The finish is long, lively and elegant.

131. Au Bon Climat Chardonnay,

Santa Barbara County, 2012

£7.25 £10.50 £14.00 £21.00 £39.75

Very much the cool, green Puligny wine of Jim's range, thanks to the coastal Santa Ynez vineyards with almost limey, citronelle purity & linear elegance, this thoroughbred of Chardonnay wine is approachable

134. Peachy Canyon Zinfandel

Incredible Red, Paso Robles, 2014 £5.95 £7.95 £10.95 £16.00 £29.75

Strawberry and raspberry aromas with a hint of black pepper. Round and supple, good balance and acidity with a food friendly savoury element.

After vinification, Zinfandel wines are often matured in American Oak, which gives them a vanilla dimension. There is no single flavour character that can be associated with the grape – it can produce light, jammy, almost Beaujolais- type wines, redolent of freshly crushed berries, through to full-bodied, robust, oak aged wines brimming with ripe, peppery, cassis-like fruits. The best can age marvellously.

136. Bonny Doon Le Cigare Volant, Santa Cruz, 2009 O, B £35.75

Grenache from our former Ca' del Solo estate (a quarter of the blend) adds rich black fruit flavours and a discreet spiciness. Syrah is principally sourced from Bien Nacido vineyard in Santa Maria Valley, which produces the closest analogue we have found to a Northern Rhône Syrah—tannic and meaty in the lower registers; peppery, fruitful and delicately floral in the top, all the while showing great balance and harmony. A small amount of ultra-low-yielding hilltop Biodynamic Syrah comes from the Chequera vineyard on the west side of Paso Robles. A select group of non-irrigated, centenarian Contra Costa vineyards continues to provide Mourvèdre for Cigare. A touch of Cinsault provides a very particular fragrance of flowers and aromatic herbs.

137. The Crusher Clarksburg Pinot Noir, 2015 £5.95 £7.95 £10.95 £16.00 £29.75

139. Geyserville, Ridge Vineyard, 2012 O £59.95

144. Vina Koyle Gran Reserva Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 B £29.95
Deep ruby red colour, with a stunning array of blackcurrant, blackberry, and dried herbs that are layered with hints of black tea and black pepper. This Cabernet is a full expression of our vineyard, showing a real grip of acidity and mineral notes from our Los Lingues Estate. Tannins are solid and velvety, and come together with a silky and balanced finish.

145. Vina Koyle Gran Reserva Carmenere 2013 B £29.95
Juicy red berry fruits; raspberry and redcurrants. Cloves, cedar and red plum notes can also be felt. Fine grained, grippy tannins are supported by a good level of concentration and acidity. Spice continues on the palate.

146. Montsecano Refugio Pinot Noir 2014 B £32.95
There are added layers of complexity in the Montsecano. Red and black berried fruits are supported by a violet and herbal perfume. Firm tannins with a mineral core. Silky texture with great density on the mid palate.

Argentinean White

149. Lunta Torrontes, Mendel, Cafayate, 2013 £25.95

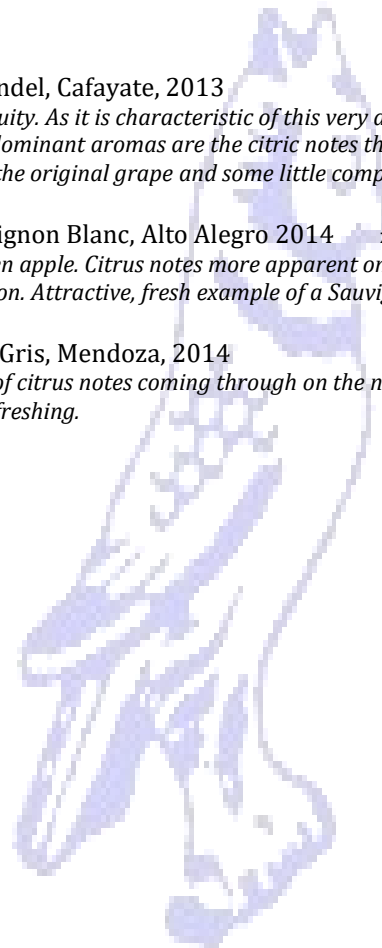

Intense and very floral and fruity. As it is characteristic of this very aromatic grape, we can find white flowers and some rose petals, but the most predominant aromas are the citric notes that confer the wine freshness and vivacity. We aim to show this the fresh side of the original grape and some little complexity as well.

150. Pulenta La Flor Sauvignon Blanc, Alto Alegre 2014 £4.95 £6.75 £9.50 £14.00 £25.95

Pear, touch of nettle and green apple. Citrus notes more apparent on the palate with an attractive glycerol mouth feel and good level of concentration. Attractive, fresh example of a Sauvignon from Mendoza.

151. Pulenta Estate Pinot Gris, Mendoza, 2014 £24.75

The colour is intense, bright inky and ruby. Musky cassis, plum and dark chocolate on the nose, lifted by minty and mineral nuances. Fine-grained and firm in the mouth, with a restrained sweetness to its black raspberry and smoky mineral flavours.

153. Pulenta Estate Merlot, Mendoza, 2011 £32.75
Ripe, juicy red fruits dominate here with lots of cherry and spice aromatics. The palate is generously supple, with ripe tannins and lively acidity. Medium length and concentration.

154. Desierto 25 Pinot Noir, Patagonia, 2016 £5.95 £7.95 £10.95 £16.00 £29.75
*To the eye: vibrant hue of ruby.
 Nose: pleasant notes of blackberry and raspberry give way to a wine with soft mineral edges.
 Palate: smooth and friendly presence that lingers pleasantly*

155. Desierto 25 Syrah, Patagonia, 2014 £5.95 £7.95 £10.95 £16.00 £29.75
*To the eye: an early rim of mahogany frames a deep burgundy interior.
 Nose: personality derived from fresh fruit, sweeter spices like cinnamon and oregano.
 Palate: fragrant, outgoing and clearly born from a warm nurturing sun. The taste gleefully confirms the variety's temperament with fruit, spices and subtle points of leather at the finish.*

Patagonia has a very old, yet little known, viticultural tradition. It was one of the first locations selected in Argentina by the pioneers and immigrants on the XIX century, due to excellent conditions to produce high quality grapes for wine production. The later boom of local mass wine consumption (that reached its peak with 90 litres per capita in 1970) encouraged producers to move into northern locations with higher yield production and better transportation facilities (railroad to Buenos Aires, the main area of consumption). The viticultural potential of Patagonia was therefore kept almost unexploited for many years, till the Argentine reconversion to high quality wines in the eighties and nineties
