

Volunteer Social

The volunteer social Community Now held last month was such a success! We all had such a great time crafting for Halloween and socializing with fellow volunteers. The turnout was great. We had volunteers from several Moreno Valley schools, Rising Stars Business Academy, Community Health Systems, and even Commissioner James Baker. Our next Volunteer Social will be on Thursday, December 3rd. We would love for all Moreno Valley volunteers to join us for raffle prizes, free food, and fun Christmas crafts to get ready for the holiday season!

The California Bicycle Summit

Our CEO, Shor Denny, and COO, Kota Russell, were invited to speak on the nation-wide panel at The California Bicycle Summit in San Diego. Shor and Kota spoke about strategies to tackle violence and crime deterrents to bicycling and walking. Violence prevention is such an important topic that is near and dear to our hearts at Community Now. We presented our Get Plugged In program and explained to the panel what we do in our Moreno Valley community to take back the streets and sidewalks and keep them safe for our children. The team at Community Now was honored to be presented with this amazing opportunity.
