Question for Reflection

Where do you see the light of Christ magnified in your person, your life, and the ways of your family and community? Notice in the coming week one time each day when the light of Christ is made present for you by others.

Household Prayer

Prince of Peace,

On this morning before Christmas,

I pray for an abiding sense of your peace,
in my life and in the lives of those I love.

I pray, too, for peace to come into every troubled heart,
home, and community.

This day may be rushed and busy,
as it must have been in Bethlehem long ago.

Let there be peace enough in my heart and mind
to receive your good news,

in light; in word; in song; in the faces of others.

In peace, help me to treasure the blessings of this day and ponder your wondrous love. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Wonderful Counselor,

As Christmas Eve draws to an end,

I ready myself to close my eyes and sleep,
to rest in the peace and confidence of your love.

May all the weary world lie down in peace,
confident that your love will break the darkness
as surely as the sun rises each new morning.

Thank you for memories that warm me this night.

I praise you for the gifts that have blessed and sustained me all day.

I entrust myself and those I love to your care,
until we wake in the morning light of Christmas joy—
to greet Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
