

Sunday Meditation

Much evil occurs in this world that's not God's will. I believe totally in God's sovereignty, but not in God's total sovereignty. He doesn't rule everything completely, but

He overrules everything. If He were totally in control of everything, He'd be the author of sin, sickness, war, misery, and every evil. Does that mean He can't protect us from harm from the wicked acts of men and demons, from sickness and suffering, and natural disasters? Not at all. He's well able to keep us from all these things. But should they come, there's no evil He can't either deliver us from or turn to our good. For "we know that all things work together for good to them that love God and are called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28). God doesn't cause evil, but, if we'll trust Him. He'll over rule everything, even evil, for our good and His glory. All for Jesus, Richard

Ladies Retreat!

Join us for a "Next Level Faith" experience on March 15-17 at our annual retreat. We will have speakers, a painting class, and many other uplifting fellowship opportunities for you planned. We are offering an early bird special of only $20 for the weekend if you sign up by March 3rd. Ladies, don't miss this chance, men, encourage your wife to take some time for her! Sign up sheet is on the Involvement Board.

We desperately need Kingdom Kids helpers!

Starting next Sunday, Feb. 17th, we do not have any teachers signed up to help at all. We brought this program back from the dead, let's not let it happen again! I need volunteers to help for any Sunday, please sign up tonight at church or this Sunday. The kids will be very disappointed and miss valuable teaching and growth without this program. I would also love to remind everyone of this verse, that is a command, not a suggestion....Because if we don't teach them, the world most certainly will.
