

- 1) After the disastrous Mexican-American War and the humiliating Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, what did the liberals in the new government agree upon with the Plan of Ayutla?

- 2) Interestingly, despite the common sense of their plan and their just cause, what made it possible for the liberals to move against Santa Anna and what does that say about the nature of Mexican politics?

- 3) Benito Juarez will become one of the most important leaders of Mexico after the removal of Santa Anna. List at least 5 events which shaped young Juarez into a formidable leader later in life:
 -
 -
 -
 -
 -

- 4) What was the liberal “Reforma” which attempted to modernize Mexico after the Liberal Party victory in 1855?

- 5) Which groups were hurt by the Reform laws and how did it lead to open violence in 1858?

-
- 6) What was the state of Mexican infrastructure after the chaos of 1858?

 - 7) What did the French Emperor Napoleon III do in 1861 and what was his larger goal?

 - 8) What innovations or changes did Maximilian try to implement in Mexico during his brief reign?

 - 9) How did the Union victory in the US Civil War spell the end for the rule of Maximilian?

 - 10) What was the price of Mexican victory over the French?

 - 11) Bonus question: What is the significance of Cinco de Mayo, a national day of celebration in Mexico?