Introduction to Liturgy of the Word

—Sirach 3:2–6, 12–14 Those who fear the Lord honor their parents.

—Psalm 128 “Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.”

—Colossians 3:12–21 or 3:12–17 Clothe yourselves with heartfelt mercy.

—Luke 2:41–52 Mary and Joseph find Jesus teaching in the temple.

Today’s first two readings include dozens of phrases and aphorisms which could be framed and hung in a home, constant reminders of how to live as a family: “He stores up riches who reveres his mother.” “Over all these put on love.” “Be thankful.” As we listen to God’s word, may we appreciate these words of wisdom and hear how Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, despite the misunderstandings in today’s Gospel story, have taken them to heart.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton | January 4

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."
