Call to Worship: (Francis of Assisi, Italy 13th century)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; and where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

Dearest Lord, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Pastoral Prayer:

Lord of all that is silent and all that is shouted aloud, give us the ears to listen and the patience to create space for others in our busy lives. Lead us on paths of love and missions of grace. Push us to find moments in which to savor the beauty of the world, and even more so, the depth of loveliness in every creature.

It is a good season to feel the mystery of new life around us, crocus and daffodils on their relentless journey to a life of color and scent. Give us that same gift of relentless journey up and out from that which has held us captive. New life bursting forth is and will always be your plan. May we pause to capture a glimpse of newness within us, of hope for a future together. Grant us the eagerness to follow you and show forth your glory to the world. Amen.

Praying for others: For Bob De Haan, Debbie Raby's father scheduled for cancer surgery on February 15. For the people in the many Islands of Tonga. For millions of people suffering in Winter storms. For Jim Serrill checking with a surgeon after a bad fall. (others for whom you pray...)*

SILENT PRAYER TIME

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading Luke 6: 27-31

²⁷ "But I say to you that are willing to hear: Love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. ²⁸ Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹ If someone slaps you on the cheek, offer the other one as well. and if anyone takes your coat, give them your shirt as well. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks and don't demand your things back from those who take them. ³¹ Treat people in the same way that you want them to treat you.

Benediction: (The Faith we Sing #2162)

Every promise we can make, every prayer and step of faith, every difference we will make is only by God's grace. Every mountain we will climb, every ray of hope we shine, every blessing left behind is only by God's grace. Grace alone which God supplies, strength unknown God will provide. Christ in us our Cornerstone; we will go forth in grace alone.
