WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship: Called to Compassion

What does a homeless person need? Most would guess the person needs food, money, clothing, medical care, and toiletries. Many parishes put together drives for those items. Is that all the person needs? A key thing needed by someone homeless as well as all human beings: to be seen.

How many of us pass by homeless people and pretend they are not even there. We don't have money in our pocket, we don't have food to give, and we don't have material items that they need, so we offer them nothing. We don't even offer ourselves.

Welcoming someone with a kind word is free. Amazingly, we act like it costs us more than anything else. It is easier to hand someone $5 than it is to engage in a 15-second exchange of words. We talk about being generous, but we need to remember that sometimes the greatest gift we have to give is simply ourselves. The Jesus in me meets the Jesus in you. One day, you or I may find ourselves in a tough spot, and we will be looking for compassion. Let's hope that all those who profess to know Jesus don't simply pass on by pretending not to see us.

From the Pastor:

Where Christian stewardship has been implemented, it has changed the lives of both givers and receivers. Parishes depend on the generosity of their people, especially the sharing of both time and talent. One of the fundamental principles of stewardship is sharing our God-given gifts of time and talents with our parish community. SPX has earned a well-deserved reputation for generosity. As disciples of Jesus, each of us is obliged to give some form of service to our parish family, according to our skills.

You will find valuable Time and Talent information at the church doors on our various parish ministries and organizations and volunteer opportunities that are available to you. A sample preview of the Stewardship Commitment Form to be completed at the Weekend Masses on Oct. 12-13, 27-28 is in the bulletin. Every person currently involved in any ministry or service is requested to recommit to their particular ministry each year if they wish to continue. The parish is in need of new volunteers and ministers in all areas of parish life. Please reflect this week on what you can do for the parish to share your love for the Lord.

Yours truly, Fr. Tom Buckman

Congratulations to Stan and Connie Bellamy who celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary on October 6th. May God bless you on your special milestone.

MINISTRIES AND SACRAMENTS

Music Ministry
fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

"Musical style for Mass always seems to be a tension in our parishes and dioceses. Many Catholics come to Mass with an expectation of a particular style, disappointed if their expectations are not met. Some even avoid certain Masses or churches based on their musical preferences. While there's nothing wrong with having a musical preference, it's a problem when the preference becomes a distraction from fully entering into Mass." David Mares, Director of Music St. Timothy Parish Mesa, AZ It's good to remember that our own musical preference, while valid and important, should come second to what's best for the whole community, particularly those on the fringes. The "lost sheep" who must be invited back and accompanied along the way. For those of us who are strong Catholics, our witness of participation in worship and singing is crucial because a great example is often more powerful than great song.

Tuesday evening choir practice from 6-7:30 pm. All are welcome to attend and offer their voice to enhance our worship at our parish.

Daily Mass Music: Wednesday, October 2nd (Mission) and Friday, October 4th 8 AM (First Friday)

THE DIOCESE and OUR COMMUNITY

Respect Life

Children as Commodities: At seventeen, Natalie discovered that her parents had contracted with another woman to become pregnant using her father's sperm and the woman's own egg. Natalie became estranged from her parent, hurt that money, rather than the physical expression of married love was the context in which she was brought into the world. Since the advent of IVF the floodgates have opened to bringing about reproduction through egg and sperm donation and surrogate pregnancies. Yet these technologies are fraught with medical, legal and moral complications. Children deserve to not be created as a product of reproductive technology, but to be given by God, and to be born through married love.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY: THURSDAY NIGHT, October 3rd - OUR LAST PICK UP SOFTBALL GAMES COME ONE AND COME ALL! St. Pius Young Adult and Owensboro Diocese Young Adult group are getting ANYONE ages 18-39 to come out to Field #5. There will be a quick prayer and devotional to start every game (2 minutes tops) then we will split into teams. All you need is a glove and any other equipment you might have. THERE IS NO EXPERIENCE REQUIRED. Just an opportunity to play and have some fun!

OCS SCRIP SUCCE$S

Scrip is a fundraising program to help families in Catholic Schools with their school tuition. SPX can also use Scrip to lower our payments to OCS for our assessment. You can pick up gift cards and gift certificates at the Scrip Office on OCHS campus.

Diocesan Bites: "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead."

Those words of Jesus at the end of the story about the rich man who had more than he needed and Lazarus the beggar seem rather harsh. There is no gentle way to say that when we are dead it will be too late to do the good we should have done when we were alive. Try this exercise. Get a pencil or pen and a blank sheet of paper. Draw a circle and cut it out. Now write inside the circle the letters TOIT. You now have a Round TOIT. You no longer have any more excuses for not imitating Jesus. That is, of course, unless you do not know Jesus. And whose fault is that? Here is another exercise: Pick up the Bible! Read it! You will learn what Jesus promised and that He rose from the dead as proof of his promise. With that knowledge and your Round TOIT, you should be all set. Get busy imitating Jesus by loving God and your neighbor as yourself.

Blessed Sacrament Chapel, 602 Sycamore St. is having an Oktoberfest on October 5th. There are two options to enjoy the evening. Option 1: Authentic German dinner. 6-8 PM $35 per person. Reservations are required. (270-929-9492, 270-302-6810 or bscoktoberfest@gmail.com) Option 2: Beer Garden 8-11 PM $5 Beer, brats, pretzels for sale.
