Doctor Luke, an Example of Faith

Scripture reading: Hebrews 11:33-35; 12:1-3
What can we learn from Luke's example?
He was a student of h Luke the Historian Luke 1:1-2 Luke talked to eyewitnesses and did his r to be accurate about the life of Christ.
Luke t with Paul (note the "we" sections in Acts 16:10-17; 20:4-15; 21:1-18)
Luke's key message ( Luke 19:10 )
Luke was guided and controlled by the Holy Spirit (1 Pet. 1:21)
We ought to be as careful in s the life of Christ as Luke was in writing it down.
He was a m of others Luke, the mentor Luke 1:3-4
Luke was writing to someone he knew needed to have a good f for his faith.
Luke would have also known that this letter would be used to help others come to faith and have certainty through his orderly account of the life of Christ.
Luke was Greek and wrote so other non-Jews could understand.
We too should be i in helping others come to Christ and have a good foundation for their faith.
He was concerned about missions Luke the missionary helper Acts 28:16
The books of Luke and Acts were written to his friend Theophilus.
In the book of Acts, Luke at times uses the word "" and ""
which tells us he was with Paul at times on his missionary trip.
He was a medical doctor (Col. 4:14), but his love for God and belief in Jesus appears to so motivate him that he j in the missions work when he could.
While we should be involved in reaching those around us, we also want to be involved in wm
Conclusion: If your story were written, would it be an example for others to follow? What legacy are you leaving to inspire others?

Your notes he	re	,
		and the second	***************************************		-
	****
·
		1.
					 -
				-
					 _
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
			, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
		×			_
					_
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			al	***************************************
-	-				