

Neurobehavioral Center for Growth (Layton, Utah)

Neurobehavioral Center For Growth (NBCG) located in Layton Utah, is looking for Board Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBA). We preferred you to on Tri-care's panel and you should be adept assessing children on the autism spectrum using the VB-MAPP, Vineland, AFLS, ABLLS, and other similar tools. Must also understand and be skillful in developing learning plans for assigned clients and overseeing and providing ongoing training to RBT's facilitating client care. Will have excellent interpersonal skills, strong time management, and organizational proficiency, must enjoy working with families and children, and prize collaborating with colleagues to format the best interventions possible. BCBA's are required to travel to and from client's homes in their vehicles, we offer competitive pay and benefits.

To apply please send your resume to Gina@neurobcg.com

<https://www.neurobcg.com/>