DAFFODIL NEWS

From Worthy President Jonas

I'm looking forward to a great Eagle year

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

My name is Jonas White and I will be the President of Daffodil Aerie for this year. Once again the Eagle year has come and gone and we're about to start anew with many events, challenges and good times to come. I would like to thank all that helped with the Installation of Officers for 2018-19.

I'm sure that the Aerie will do well despite the challenges ahead. I ask that you keep an open mind and positive attitude as we all work toward a better future for ourselves and our home.

We will be holding an election for the vacated office of Worthy Conductor before the meeting on Wednesday, June 6 and installing him after the votes are tallied.

I would also like to bring your attention to who

Now is the time to submit Bylaw, House Rule changes

The Aerie Bylaw Committee will accept any proposed Bylaw or House Rule changes from now until Monday, June 25. Please give the proposed changes to the chairman, listed at the end of this article, or put them in an envelope and deposit the envelope in the slot in the Aerie Secretary's door.

To be a legal proposal they must contain both the Bylaw or House Rule as it now reads, and the proposed changed wording. It must also contain the legible signatures of three Aerie members in good standing.

The first reading of these proposed changes will be read at the first Aerie meeting in July, the second reading will be at the second Aerie meeting in July, and the third and final reading and voting will be at the first Aerie meeting in August.

— Leonard Blakely,
Aerie Bylaw Chairman

your officers will be, in order of Junior Past Worthy President to the Trustees:

JPWP Gary Plumb, VP Eric Kelm, Chap. Jerry DeLaurenti, Sec. Jerry Miller, Treas. Bob Ainsworth, Sr., ISG Francis Pinchbeck, and OSG Bryan Hamby. One of the most notable titles is that of Aerie Trustee as they are responsible for the operations of the Aerie. They are: Wally Lockrie, Alan Whipple, Paul Stavig, Leonard Blakely and Tom Alpert.

All of these Brothers have stepped forward to ensure that we have a home and that business is handled to the best of their abilities. I applaud them all for their commitment to the Aerie and look forward to working with them.

— Fraternally, Jonas White, Worthy President

Parkinson's raffle set for Sunday, June 10

Raffle tickets will be available on Sunday, June 10 starting at 11 a.m. during a fund-raiser to benefit the Northwest Parkinson's Foundation. The drawing will be at 5:30 p.m. and you need not be present to win.

The vendors have donated some great prizes this year including golf packages; Tacoma Rainiers baseball tickets; Sounders S2 tickets; gift baskets; restaurants gift cards from Harbor Lights, Charlies, Bumpy's, Scotty Pub, Savory Sweet Cafe, Loose Wheel, Giorgio's Greek Cafe, The Rose Restaurant, The Taqueria, Wicked Pie, Puerto Vallarta, and Napoli Italiano!

All proceeds go to the Northwest Parkinson's Foundation for research. Thanks in advance for your support.

— Sue Hansen

From Madam President Carol

Thank you all for a great year!

Many Past Presidents told me that the Madam President's year goes rapidly, and it certainly has!

As I reflect on the past 12 month, I want to express my sincere thanks to all of the officers who served with me. Shelia Wilson, Jr. Past President; Colleen Horton, VP; Kathy Crouchet, Chaplain; Kathy Thompson, Conductor; Karren Franckowiak, Secretary; Gerri Cowling, Treasurer; Lynn Larson, Inside Guard; Laurie Miller, Outside Guard; and Trustees Lynn Mueller, Gail Becker and Linda Miller; along with our Auxiliary Mother Yvonne Brown and Auxiliary Father Jerry Miller; Forever Mom, Mary Jane Pagel; and Grandma and Grandpa Mary and Bob Reynolds. I learned something from each of you during the year and it's been an honor to serve with you.

I would also like to thank the chairman and the many committee members who work behind the scenes for our charities, events and special occasions! Your dedication is truly appreciated.

I was excited to see so many new Aerie and Auxiliary members join Daffodil #2308 this year, proving that we are a strong, essential organization in our community!

I wish our incoming Madam President Colleen and her officers much success in the upcoming year! Let's all give them the support and friendship they need!

It is great to see our Aerie and Auxiliary well represented at the State Convention in Yakima this month. Best of luck to the officers and candidates, the delegates and Ritual Team!

Thanks again for helping me grow as a person and a fellow Eagle!

— Regards, Carol Walther, Madam President

From your Madam President-elect

Meet my new team of Officers for 2018-19

To all my Sisters and Brothers
Of Daffodil Aerie #2308:

This is the beginning of another Eagle year. My name is Colleen Horton and I will be your Auxiliary Madam President for the 2018-2019 year.

This year we are faced with challenges and changes in our club. I for one am sure we will all face these challenges head on. The changes will be hard for many who have known our club to exist at its current location. No one cares for change, but we all need to face the challenge and come together to keep our club active not only within the Eagle walls, but outside by giving back to our community.

My fellow officers will include: Carol Walther, Junior Past Madam President; Diane Kubicek, Vice President; Rosemarie Howard, Chaplain; Bert Reynolds, Conductor; and Trustees Gail Becker, Valerie Coty and Judy Andrews. Our Secretary is Karleen Howard and Treasurer is Gerri Cowling. Our Inside Guard is Jean Cook and our Outside Guard is Debi Calhoun.

I hope to see you at our meetings which are held the second and fourth Thursday of the month.

My charity for the year is for Parkinson's Research. The other charities I will be focusing on will include Diabetic Research, Heart Fund, Cancer Fund, and the Jimmy Durante Fund, along with the Building Fund. I am also looking for chairmen to help raise funds for these charities. I am hoping those who are interested will step forward and bring your ideas as to how we can raise funds. The fund raising can occur within the club walls and outside, as well. If you are you up to a challenge and want to become more socially active, then please look within yourself and step forward, for I am sure there are many just like you who are seeking the same.

Last but not least, I want to thank Carol Walther for the phenomenal job she did as Auxiliary Madam President. I have a tough act to follow and I am very grateful that she is in my corner. Thanks Carol!

— *Colleen Horton,
Madam President-elect*

Texas Hold'em

Puyallup Food Bank reaping the benefits of our monthly card games

May Day. . . May Day. . . Several Texas Hold'em players were AWOL, but those who attended had a good time and brought lots of food and money to help fill our Puyallup Food Bank with much need supplies. You are such a giving group of players and our Aerie is so blessed that you are part of them.

May winners were: First, Patti Saathoff; second, John Ramsaur; third, Tommy Mellick; fourth, Tim Shea; fifth, Bob Taylor; sixth, Glen Dunbar; seventh, Mel Wright, Sr.; eighth, Scott Norris; and ninth, Denny Cowen. Congratulations!

"Girl Power" seized the day! Ladies, come and join us and don't feel intimidated. There are more and ladies joining in and lots of husband and wives playing and spending the day together.

Next game is on Sunday, June 10. And yes we will be collecting food and you will receive an extra $1,000 chip when you bring in food. Gary Plumb and Bob Reynolds turned in 327 pounds and $ 191.

Thanks again. Tommy Dorsey, you've done a great job as chairman for this cause.

Players, please get those dues paid. You have to have a current Eagles card in order to play. Bring your friends with you.

Thanks to all the volunteers and also to Dave Rice for stepping in and helping when needed.

— Thanks,
Bob Reynolds & Crew

The graphic features a green background. At the top, there are four card symbols: a black spade, a red heart, a red diamond, and a black club. Below these, the text "Next Game. . ." is written in a blue, cursive font inside a white rectangular box. Underneath this box, the date "Sunday, June 10" is written in a large, orange, cursive font. Below the date, the text "BRING FOOD AND $$$" is written in a bold, magenta, sans-serif font, followed by "FOR THE" in the same font.
