April 22-World Day of Prayer for Vocations!

We take a lot of things in life for granted. For example, a young father can become used to the sun rising, the car starting, dropping the kids off for school, going to work, coming back home and eating with the family, etc. One thing people take for granted in the Catholic Church is that we will always have priests, deacons, and religious. But we need to be praying for these vocations because the Lord wants us to do it. Jesus told the Apostles- "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest (Matt 9:37-38)." This is why I started the monthly Vocations Cross in the parishes so that we will always have someone praying for vocations.

We are all called to certain vocations. I have already mentioned clergy and religious, but marriage and the single life are also vocations. All of humanity, therefore, needs to be listening to God's voice so that everyone follows the vocation God is calling them to live. Each of us is a unique creation of God and our vocation that we are called to follow will make us most fulfilled in God's grace.

The vocation of priesthood is particularly important in the Catholic Church because of the sacraments especially the Eucharist. Many priests in the Diocese of Toledo have two or more parishes to lead and that is not an easy task. We need more holy priests to help the Diocese of Toledo to grow stronger. The Universal Church really needs priests for sparse areas in our world where Mass is a luxury that happens occasionally.

Religious are also great in helping bring people closer to God. I really enjoyed seeing and reading about the 98-year old Sr. Jean who was the chaplain for the 11 seed Loyola-Chicago basketball team that made it all the way to the Final Four! She was such a great ambassador for vocations as she smiled and hugged all the basketball players from her wheelchair after every game. Her happiness was contagious and inspired the team. We have been blessed to have Sr. Susanna Weaver helping our parishes and feeding the hungry in Shelby for a while. Let's not take that for granted! Tell her 'thank you' the next time you see her.

We are also blessed with many deacons in our parishes: Leo Hartings (retired) Steve Keller (semi-retired) and Steve Vogt (just beginning) at Sacred Heart. Joe Burkhart (retired), Bill Horning (retired), and Bill Rall (retired) at St. Joseph. Thank you, gentleman, for your many years of service!

I would like for everyone in both parishes to make sure before you go to bed today to pray for more priests, more deacons, more nuns and sisters, more strong marriages, and more strong single people to give to and help build up Christ's Church here on earth.

Thanks, and God Bless!!!

Fr. Chris
