

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

And it was a successful Zoom meeting. Thank you Kime for your expertise in putting this together. There were 25-plus members who signed on. This wasn't a business meeting, only Show and Tell. We not only shared quilting projects but conversations on what's keeping us going through this long saga. Some of us cleaned our sewing rooms, volunteered for church, knitted, read good books, ate too much or just enjoyed the outdoors. We will have another meeting on Sept. 28. Kime will send information prior to then. Check your inboxes and join us for the evening.

There is good news to share. We are going to have a Quilt Show in 2021. At least that's the plan. Kitty Friend and Mary Wolter have agreed to co-chair. Volunteers once again are needed to make this a success. Contact them if you wish to do so. Judy Martin has signed on to replace Kristin Wengert as board secretary. Nancy Fenske and Jeanne Steidtmann will co-chair Hospitality. We are looking forward to all their ideas that will continue to make our guild a success. Thank you.

There is bad news too. Three positions remain open – Treasurer, Historian and Program Chair. In the past the board is presented to the guild at our October meeting for membership approval. We will discuss how this will be handled at the next Zoom board meeting.

Until next month.... Sometimes you have to let go of the picture of what you thought life would be like and learn to find joy in the story you're living. Anonymous.

Anticipating any road trips?

If so, one may take you through Shawano where you will find a spanking new shop.
The Bolt and Skien, 1488 E. Green Bay Road, offers patterns, fabric, yarn and notions.
 It's very important to support locally. Often when on the road, we are more than likely keeping an eye open for another shop or two.

Judy Martin has volunteered to put the binding on the finished quilt.

The actual raffle date has not yet been established.

Watch for further updates.

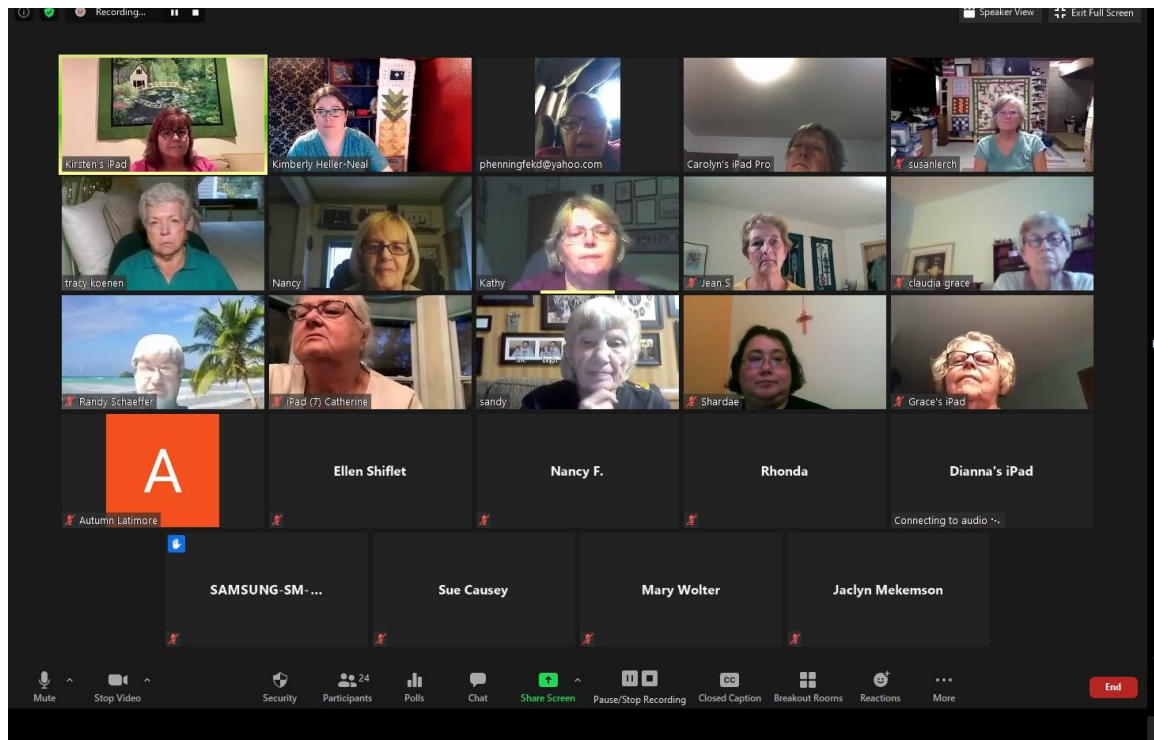

Zoom Guild Meeting

More than 25 members participated in the Zoom meeting on Monday, Aug. 31. Many of you missed an interesting and fun evening. Each of us had an opportunity to show and tell about our projects or what we've been up to during the pandemic. Not all had quilts to show. While some just listened, others shared how they have coped by doing volunteer work, reorganizing their sewing room or knitting to name a few.

You will have another opportunity to join in on Monday, Sept. 28. Kime will once again make sure that everything goes along smoothly. The August newsletter included all the information needed to participate. Kime will send Zoom Meeting Room information the day before the meeting. Be sure to look for it in your Inbox.

Secretary Position

The board is happy to report that the secretary position has been filled. Judy Martin has volunteered to assume the duties from Kristen Wengert. Judy has previously served on the board and was a co-chair of the last quilt show. We welcome her back!

Terms of several members of the board are expiring at the end of the year. We won't be able to have any in-person meetings so I am asking you through this note to consider volunteering for one of these openings. If you have any questions about responsibility or duties, contact me at 752-0584 or 994-0134. We meet the first Monday of the month for a one-hour board meeting. New ideas are necessary and welcomed to keep the guild interesting.

Your help is needed for the following positions:

VP of Planning (one-year) transitions into VP of Programs (one year)
Treasurer (two years)
Historian (two years)

Thank you for considering these important positions.

By the 1840s a new style had emerged: the Baltimore Album or Friendship quilt, consisting of elaborately appliquéd floral and other figures, often with each block bearing a different design.
