Song                      How Great Thou Art                      TUMC Praise Team

Call to Worship: (Joseph Renville, 1846. Native American Tune, Hymn #148)

Many and great, O God, are thy things, Maker of earth and sky.

Thy hands have set the heavens with stars; thy fingers spread the mountains and plains.

Lo, at thy word the waters were formed; deep seas obey thy voice.

Grant unto us communion with thee, thou star abiding one; come unto us, with thee are found the gifts of life. Bless us with life that has no end, eternal life with thee.

Amen.

Prayer (Diane Karay)

O Gentle Spirit, lest we ever forget your promise of peace and shelter, anchor our hearts upon the unshakable foundation of your grace. In times of hesitation, doubt, or fear remind us that at heart we are always your children, as you are always our God. And if we ever lose sight of this, you will never lose touch with us. Amen

Song “The Lord’s Prayer” Kathy Niguidula

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Proverbs 9:10; 22:1-2,8-9,22-23

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold. The rich and the poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all. A prudent person sees danger and hides; but the simply go on and suffer for it. Those who sow injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of injustice will fail.

Happy are generous people, because they give some of their food to the poor. Don't steal from the poor. Don't oppress the needy at the gate. The Lord will take up their case and the life of the oppressor will be pressed. The awe of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.
