Good Deeds

We are saved by grace through faith and not by works of justification.
None of us may boast about anything we have done to earn our salvation.

Jesus Christ paid the ransom for our eternal souls on the cross at Calvary.
If we have faith in Jesus Christ then eternal life we will receive.

Each one of us was saved by Christ so we can continue His works of love.
Works which are a visible testimony of our faith in our Father above.

Faith without works is dead and falls short of our Father's expectations.
Faith accompanied by works is evidence of a person's eternal salvation.

If you are saved then the Holy Spirit now lives deep inside of you.
If you are filled with the Spirit then good deeds you will want to do.

Good deeds may be done by anyone who practices good behavior.
Hell contains many who did good deeds but who rejected Jesus as Savior.

You must have faith in Christ and good deeds to show others the right way.
Your faith is easily measured by how many good deeds you do each day.
