

Judith Elaine Luttenberger, age 73, resident of Pigeon, went home to be with the Lord and her husband, William on March 30, 2012 at University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, MI. Her family was there surrounding her with an abundance of love and tears as she made her way to Heaven.

She was born October 7, 1938 in Port Huron, Michigan to the late Richard Frederick and Margaret Kathrin (Boughner) Ross.

Judith was united in marriage on February 3, 1962 to William Luttenberger in Wayne County, Michigan.

In her early years Judith was a stay at home Mom. She worked part-time at the Harbor Beach Resort, cleaning homes and taking care of the elderly. After an accident that left her husband, William with a closed head injury, she chose to take care of him with no outside nursing in home care so they moved to Lapeer to be closer to his doctors. After William passed away in 2011, she moved to Pigeon to be closer to her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She lived her life loving God and the Bible was her inspiration. She was a Lifetime Partner with the John Hagee and Jimmy Swaggert Ministries. Judith loved spiritual, uplifting gospel music. She enjoyed drawing, sketching, watching sports, and most of all, spending time with her family.

Judith is survived by three sons, Mark Luttenberger of Harrison Township, David (Shari) Luttenberger of Utica and Edward (Misty) Luttenberger of Pigeon; two daughters, Brenda Steinbis and special friend, George Cook of Ubly and Michelle (Jeff) Nieschulz of Bad Axe; 16 grandchildren, Matthew, Jason, Eric and Ryan Luttenberger, Sarah and Heather Luttenberger, Stephan Hanselman, Brandon Stephenson, and Evan Luttenberger, Kristie and Kyle Arntz, Nathan and Alyssa Steinbis, and Joshua, Carley and Hannah Nieschulz; 7 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Richard and Rich Ross; one sister, Sally Taylor of Detroit.

A memorial will take place at a later date for both Judith and William Luttenberger. Arrangements are being handled by the MacAlpine Funeral Home, Bad Axe. www.macalpinefuneralhome.com
