

Celine Giacci (maiden name Shultz) was born and raised in Brentwood along with her sister and two brothers. She spent the first 30 years of her life as a Brentwood resident and attended Moore Elementary then later on Brentwood Jr/Sr High School. She is the mother of 3 adult daughters with the last and youngest getting married this June.

Her battle with cancer began this past October and she received the devastating diagnosis of treatable but not curable Stage 4 Renal Cancer that has spread to her lungs in January. Shortly after she received the news that her 37 year old nephews Stage 4 Colorectal Cancer was not only in his lung but had also spread to his brain. With her husband of 27 years, Chuck Giacci by her side she has just begun the long process of treatment and continues to worry more for her nephew's progress than her own.
