

JOHANNESBURG PLEIADES STAR MAP 2

The purpose of this illustration is to suggest that the core financial center of Johannesburg incorporates the approximate correlation to the Pleiades layout. There are 7 main skyscrapers or buildings of prominent importance that usually involve banking institutes and have pyramids on top of their skyscrapers. This is the case with the financial district of Johannesburg as with all other such banking centers of the world that also cryptically hide such a Martian extra-terrestrial motif. One interesting observation about the location of Johannesburg in relation to the Great Pyramid of Giza is that the heading is at a 3.22 degrees.

This is just another of the Luciferian signatures of how they incorporated their diabolical numerology into where certain centers are to be located precisely as they correlate to Earth's energy points, sacred ley lines that construe perhaps inter-dimensional gateways or portals for the Masters of the Motif, that of the Cydonia, Mars kind. Again, this is not to suggest that all who work in world banking or sporting venues are of this caliber of so called Elites or have such a knowledge but that those that have given the blueprints and are behind the financial orders apparently still hold to the composition as did the Ancients

Rail Station

Other notable relationships is that the star Asterope, which is considered the 'gateway' to the Pleiades corresponds to the Rail Station that in essence is a gateway to the other parts of the country.

As to the Pleiades financial center of Johannesburg, the following are suggested correlations to the stars of the Pleiades. The Vodacom tower corresponds to the star Atlas. The star Alcyone corresponds to a tower that is itself designed in star fashion. The star Merope corresponds to the ABIA tower. The star Celaeno corresponds to the Standard Bank. The star Taygete corresponds to the Museum of Science and Man. The star Maia corresponds to the High Court building.

Within this point, the composition of the core of the Pleiades patterns construes a pentagram. The principle of the pentagram in terms of its geometry is that it is self-replicating on to infinity and esoterically it has the properties of 'eternal life' as in resurrection power.
