

Cindy Brewer

Born in Louisiana, Cindy taught French for 35 years in the DC Public Schools before retiring in 2000. She now is a substitute instructor for Prince Georges County Public Schools. Cindy spent a year in Vellore, India while her husband served as a chaplain at a medical school and she worked as counselor. Her immediate family includes one son, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She enjoys reading, ballroom dancing, visiting art galleries, art museums, wineries, and attending wine tastings and dinners.
