

God is the creator of time, and is therefore not subject to the passing of time. He's "the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Heb. 13:8). Therefore He's never past or future, but always present; He is I AM. "Before Abraham was I AM" (John 8:58; Ex. 3:14). His parting words to the apostles were, "Lo, I AM with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matt.

28:20). I am, not I will be. That means that something of that timeless life has entered into us forever. "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life. (John 5:24). We're already "seated with Christ in the heavenly realm" (Eph. 2:6). In eternity, this timeless life, which even now dwells in us, will blaze forth in unending glory. All for Jesus, Richard
