Why do Christians worship on Sunday?

"We hold our common assembly on Sunday because it is the first day of the week, the day on which God put darkness and chaos to flight and created the world, and because on that same day our Savior Jesus Christ rose from the dead. For he was crucified on Friday and on Sunday he appeared to his apostles and disciples and taught them the things that we have passed on for your consideration."

--Saint Justin Martyr

Blast From the Past

By: Dorothy Trigg

This week is a belated Father's Day announcement from a bulletin from 1956. I apologize for not making this last week, but as I write the bulletins the week before I completely forgot.

"Father's Day: We extend our best wishes on this day to all Fathers in the Parish. Our Fathers have every reason to be proud today: Not only as good husbands with love and devotion to their families but likewise to their church. Congratulations to all Fathers today."
