Miller Wins the Dothan Pro Classic

David Miller of Daphne AL takes the 2014 Dothan pro classic. He had three days of solid golf with rounds of 71-68-67-216 to claim a six shot win. This was Millers first win of the year and won the $2800 first prize. Chase Blaich of De Funiak Springs finished second at 211 and collected $1500. Glenn Northcutt of Dothan AL was the hometown favorite and finished third at 214 to win $1100. Kyle Sapp finished fourth one stroke back at 215. Ben Bates was fifth at 219.

The Pro Am was won by Chase Blaich and amateurs Bret Scott, Steve Scott and J R Dean. Thanks to Wiregrass Construction for their support of the Emerald Coast Golf tour. Also much thanks to Matt Rivers at Dothan National for his warm hospitality.
