

A Restorative Dialogue Led by the Teacher

Purpose To understand and curtail an undesired behavior or attitude when it is a small issue in a restorative way.

Opening:

1. Share something positive about the student.
2. Question: What do you appreciate about our class?

Sharing Concern:

3. Question: Do you have any concerns with how things are going?
4. My concern is this...
5. More questions:
 - Tell me what happened? (Instead of why did you do that?)
 - What are/were you feeling?
 - Tell me what you are/were thinking?
6. What can each of us do to make things better?
7. How can I help or support you?
8. Let's agree to check in with each other by....
