

WATERCOLOR Take Home Kit

a Cairn ('cause rocks are cool!)

When the trail seems unclear, and there are many possible paths to travel, the cairn points you in the right direction.

You'll be really surprised at how fun this stack of rocks are to create! Plus, you can really become an expert and create multiple versions in a wide variety of styles & colors.

There are several unique special effects you'll use in this painting. While also learning a little about dimension and light.
