The Mideast Dilemma

The dilemma of the Mideast is manmade and has become of crisis proportions. It was over a century ago that some over-zealous leaders, known as Christian Zionists, thought they would do God a favor by assisting in the creation of what is now known as International Zionism. They thought that if they could "hasten" the arrival of the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:16; 20:8), peace would come to the world for a millennium. They became politically active and influenced world leaders of nations to form the Jewish state of Israeli which has helped create many of the problems in that part of the world. The blood of hundreds of millions of innocent people of the world is on their hands when you consider the wars that have been fought all over the world to support and stabilize that doctrine. The end of it is not yet in sight. Oh, there have been efforts for hundreds of years by some, particularly the international money lenders, to create what is known as Zionism. However, only after the idea was supported by the Christian community, particularly in the United States, was it possible.

"Thus with the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth (have plenty to eat), and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God" (Micah 3:5-7)

The situation in the Mideast is truly of crisis proportions. In this issue we want to present to you facts that we have obtained from many different sources. Then, through deductive reasoning, perhaps we can determine what could happen in the near future. There are things that we can do, as families, to prepare for the uncertain, and dangerous, times ahead.

We have significantly upgraded our ability to obtain news and information from foreign sources. For many years, Europeans have stated that they are amazed at how uninformed and ignorant we Americans are regarding what is going on in the world. With the sad state of affairs in the American news media, the Europeans have a point. We here at Christian Crusade For Truth now receive news releases from nearly all of the major foreign news services. We are pleased that we can now pass on to you some information that does not make its way into the American newspapers and television. The information presented in this issue has come from those foreign sources, as well as from a number of well-qualified newsletters.

Now For The Facts. Communist Russia and all of her Communist satellite nations are in the most serious crisis since their inception. It has been said, "What does a starving people have to lose?" Even the American news media has reported that the Baltic states of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania are demonstrating, causing civil unrest and wanting to be more independent. They are tired of being hungry and going without the basic necessities of life. Armenia and Azerbaijan are clashing with ethnic struggles, again, mainly because they are hungry.

Mikhail Gorbachev

Gorbachev and the Kremlin are even permitting these demonstrations and unrest for a purpose. They have allowed the world to view the restructuring of their government through what they call "Perestroika" and the openness of "Glasnost" for the same purpose. That purpose is to give the West the illusion that Russia is changing and that they have become "democratic". Gorbachev, himself, is a hand-picked leader because of his charisma. He is now the "darling" of the West but one day soon we will see another, the real Gorbachev. The idea of "Pamyat", or "memory", has been allowed to continue to show the Russian people when and how their problems started with the Bolshevik revolution of 1917. It is similar to the situation here in the United States during World War II when our movies showed how glorious and romantic war was and how evil the nations of Germany, Italy and Japan were.

Russia has been forced into presenting this charade because she is at a crossroads. Either Russia will go into oblivion or she will make a series of moves that will "checkmate" the West. The leaders in the Kremlin have decided to go for the checkmate. The Plutocratic, Elite Capitalist, One World Order group, with their headquarters in New York and London, think that Russia will be willing to merge with the West. They believe that since it was they who kept the Soviet Union supplied with food, technology, money, and other support all of the years since 1917, the Soviet Union would be most pleased to merge at this time.

What seems to be a paradox exists with this Plutocratic group. They themselves don't believe in the literal analysis of the battle of Armageddon or the Gog and Magog of Ezekiel 38-39. At least, their actions indicate this. However, it was they who established and funded Oliver Cromwell in England during the middle 1600's. They were in total control during the reign of Charles II which followed, as well as the king's infamous CABAL, which set the stage for the Bank of England in 1694. The idea of Christian Zionism sprang from those groups that the Plutocrats supported and funded! Those actions were a perfect example of the "dialectics" that George Hegel later described in the middle 1800's.

The Soviet Union doesn't see it the same way, in my opinion, as the Plutocratic, Elite Capitalists do. They have been perfectly willing to receive all of these "goodies" for these past 70 years but they will merge only if it is on their terms and not that of the Western, One World, Plutocrats. These Plutocrats worked the same dialectics on the formation of Communist Russia as they did during the time of Oliver Cromwell and Charles II.

One of the two superpowers, the United States or Russia, could very easily be reduced in world status as a result of the geopolitical moves now taking place.

It has been said that "The Russian is a Western man with an Eastern mind". Therefore, do not take what Gorbachev is saying and doing at face value. Think about the "checkmate" that is coming.

The "New One World Order" crowd of Plutocrats in the West (Trilateralists, CFR, Bilderbergers, etc.) believe that this is the time for the peaceful merging of Russia with the West. Gorbachev has come to the west with his hat in his hand asking for food and economic support because his grain harvest was 35 million tons below their expected amount. Because of all of this "democracy" in the Soviet Union, we Americans have been brainwashed into believing Gorbachev (thanks to the Plutocrats, of course) and the West is making the biggest grain deal ever made with Russia. The United States has experienced a very severe drought situation in 1988. We produced less food in 1988 than we consumed. And yet, the State Department has stated that our commitments to Russia come first.

Our grossly egotistical Plutocratic manipulators think that they are pulling the strings of control. An IRBM (Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile) treaty was consummated. Both Russia and the United States are pulling out some of these missiles. As a result of this, our military planners now believe that the American Forces in Europe are "suicide" troops. The Pentagon figures that the 350,000 American troops in Europe can last for only twelve days without those missiles.

United States Intelligence reports that the Soviet Union, to compensate for the removal of the IRBM's, have assigned their Yankee class submarines in European waters. These submarines are equipped with 16 SSN-6 nuclear missiles, each carrying two warheads. There are several submarines already on station. How smart can we get? We take out our Pershing II's. The Russians take out their IRBM's. They replace them with Yankee class submarines equipped with similar missile but we can't see them. "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil."

Gorbachev stated in his message to the United Nations on Dec. 12, 1988 that Russia was removing 10,000 tanks, 8500 artillery systems and 800 fighter planes from the European part of the Soviet Union. He said that six tank divisions would be removed from East Germany. Why? Is it because they have lost their "Will To Power"? No, it is because they need those troops elsewhere and it is a part of the "checkmate".

More Facts. A sizable number of Russians, particularly in the Southern regions, are Moslem. They are yearning for their ethnic and religious relationships with the Moslems of the Mideast. They are sympathetic with the green flag of the Islamic Jihad or "holy war." The ethnic squabbles in Armenia and Azerbaijan are partly over this sympathy for Islam and the demands for Jerusalem. It was exacerbated because of their economic condition and hunger. The recent earthquake will further deteriorate the relationships.

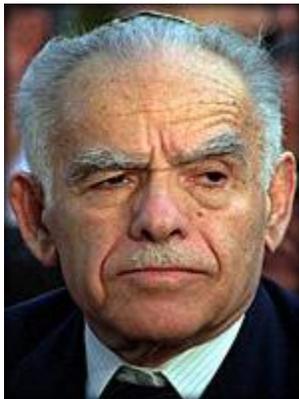

The PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization) has known for some time that they must turn to Russia for support. They, too, have recognized that Russia is now a Nationalist Communist nation instead of a Bolshevik Communist nation. They have sought support from Russia and have been told to soften their rhetoric. They were told to create the sympathy necessary for their cause with the use of children throwing rocks and not through terrorism. Thus, the Intafada was born. The Kremlin knew that the Israelis would respond to the children's uprising of the Intafada with typical Zionist authoritarianism. As a corollary, have you noticed the patience that the South Korean police have used with the youth of their country in the recent near-riots there? One should wonder how our government would respond to a like situation here in the United States, particularly if the civil disobedience was from the so-called "right-wing."

The PLO, or I should say, Russian, technique of using the Intafada worked. The whole world became sympathetic with the PLO. And the Israelis kept right on killing and maiming Palestinian youth.

Finally, the United Nations (and the Kremlin has a handle on that august body) called for a debate. Yasser Arafat was invited to speak to the General Assembly of the UN in New York. Our State Department bit, "hook, line and sinker". The Secretary of State, George Shultz, denied him a Visa on the grounds that Arafat was "an accessory to terrorism". This statement was overwhelmingly condemned in Europe but applauded in Israel. Fifty-One Senators urged Mr. Shultz to deny Arafat, well before Arafat asked for the Visa. The United States and Israel knew what Arafat was going to say in his speech to the UN and that was the problem. They knew that the PLO was asking for recognition as an independent state and a homeland for their people.

Yasser Arafat

Yitzhak Shamir

The Prime Minister of Israel, Yitshak Shamir, as well as their Foreign Minister, Shimon Peres, flatly deny the possibility of a Palestinian state anywhere near their country. A very large contingency of Jews in the United States have put extreme pressure on the United States to disallow Arafat to make his proposal to the UN in New York.

In Washington, however, there are some observers who are very openly reminding our government that Yitshak Shamir was operations chief of the notorious Stern Group, which carried out documented atrocities during Israel's early years and continue to this day.

As we all have read, the UN meeting was moved to Geneva and Arafat made his proposal. The State Department at first would not accept Arafat's position. Then, as if by magic, the situation changed and the U.S. agreed that he met the requirements for acceptance. Israel and American Jews were dismayed. To them, this was the biggest set-back for the state of Israel since it was founded. The Israeli newspaper Hadashot called it "the most painful diplomatic slap in the face that Israel has received since its establishment." What happened? The State Department decided that "discretion was the better part of valor!"

And More Facts. The entire Moslem world is consolidating its position with vigor. Moderate Arab states are conducting secret negotiations with other Arab states. There has been a constant shuttle back and forth of the various ministers of these Arab states. King Hussein of Jordan was even asked by the Afghan President and Communist party chief Najibullah to mediate for the holding of peace talks with Mujahedin resistance fighters. The place for the peace talks is to be in the Moslem holy city of Mecca, Saudi Arabia.

The very moderate Saudi Arabia was once the friend of the United States but because of Israeli pressure they were shunned when they wanted to purchase, a large amount of military hardware. This included fighter aircraft. They turned to England for the purchase. The largest purchase ever made by Saudi Arabia of military armaments was consummated between the two countries. It includes a naval base and an air base.

King Hussein of Jordan

King Hussein of Jordan and Syrian President Hafez Assad met behind closed doors to review bilateral relations and to discuss the 30,000 Syrian troops stationed in Lebanon. Diplomatic sources in the Gulf said that Saudi Arabia and Jordan were planning a new bid to end the rift between Syria and Iraq. It is felt that King Hussein discussed that desire with the Syrian president.

The United Arab Emirates has signed an agreement to purchase a number of French made Crutale anti-aircraft missiles.

Saddam Hussein

Iraqi President Saddam Hussein made a surprise visit to Egypt. Even Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak did not know of the visit in time to be at the airport to greet him when he arrived. President Hussein was accompanied by Deputy Chairman Ibrahim and Foreign Minister Tarek Aziz. This reinforces the importance placed on the meeting. They "discussed matters of common concern to the two countries and the Arab world in political, economic and other fields, with top priority going to the Palestinian problem." This is diplomatic jargon for "coming to a common plan for action."

The Iranian Economics Minister Mohammad Iravani visited Moscow to discuss "bilateral relations" with the Soviet Prime Minister Nikolai Ryzhlov. The Iranian Minister Iravani asked for a "closer relationship between Iran and the Soviet Union." The Soviet Prime Minister Ryzhkov stated, "The time has come for Iran and the Soviet Union to advance more actively."

Jordan is trying to reconcile the rift between Egypt and Syria. Syria broke diplomatic ties with Cairo after the late Egyptian President Anwar Sadat visited Jerusalem in 1978, a year before signing the Camp David peace treaty with Israel.

King Fahd of Saudi Arabia met a top Soviet official in a move Western diplomats said could herald a resumption of diplomatic relations. The First Deputy Foreign Minister Yuli Voronstov met with King Fahd after coming from Afghanistan where he met for two days with Afghan rebels in the resort city of Taif. This was the highest-ranking Soviet official to visit Saudi Arabia in more than 50 years. After the meeting with King Fahd, he left for a meeting in Cairo, Egypt.

The defense ministers of six Gulf states have agreed to boost military cooperation. The ministers agreed in a two-day meeting to increase coordination, exchange expertise and hold more joint maneuvers between the armed forces of the six states, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, The United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, Qatar, and Oman.

Saudi Arabia is purchasing a number of the very high tech Osorio tanks from the Engesa Company of Brazil. Apparently these tanks were far superior to other tanks that Saudi Arabia tested.

What does all of this mean? For one thing, we can rest assured that they are not conducting a round-robin chess tournament! What I see are dark, ominous war clouds on the horizon. Those of us old enough to remember the period before World War II, can recollect the same kind of diplomatic maneuvering. But in those days it was International Zionism that was calling the shots. This time it is they who are against the wall and are trying desperately to defuse this situation.

The facts that have been presented here should be enough to convince us that we are entering into a crisis period. But permit me to continue with some more facts that should emphasize just how serious this crisis really is.

Still More Facts. Saudi Arabia has purchased 90 CCS-2 Intermediate Range Ballistic Missiles (IRBM) from China. These are being installed in hardened sites at Ad Dilam, 60 miles from Riyadh. United States Intelligence sources have confirmed that the Israelis have finalized plans to make a preemptive strike on these missiles in an attempt to knock them out. The missiles are placed in two large complex underground shelters. Consequently, it will be no easy task to destroy the missiles using conventional warheads. THEY ARE CONTEMPLATING USING NUCLEAR WARHEADS TO ACCOMPLISH THE TASK! They realize that it will not be quite as easy as knocking out the Iraqi Reactor at Tamuz in 1981. The Jews are not scheduled to make the attack on Saudi Arabia until after their elections. So everything is on hold because the elections have still not delivered a new government in Israel. Outside pressure against their making the raid has been very heavy but the Israelis plan on going ahead with it anyway, even though they may be talked out of using nuclear warheads.

Israel is also building intercontinental missiles capable of hitting Moscow and Leningrad. The United States is also trying to discourage them from going ahead with this project. According to Leonard Spector, a nuclear non-proliferation expert, Israel's ability to retaliate against Moscow raised the risk of a superpower nuclear confrontation.

The Jewish state has already developed a nuclear-capable medium range missile known as the Jericho II, capable of knocking out most Arab capitals. It is not known whether the missile has been deployed. U.S. experts surmise that the objective of the Jericho II is to deter the Soviet Union from intervening in any future Middle East war. The U.S. State Department spokesman, when asked to comment, said "we are aware of no Israeli plans to re-configure or to configure their launch vehicle as a missile." Another official said, "How could we be expected to know? The Israelis keep us in the dark on these matters. Nobody knew of the Offeg 1 in advance. It shocked everyone." The Offeg 1 was the 343 pound satellite that Israel launched on September 19. According to the Livermore laboratories, that satellite booster is capable of launching a nuclear warhead a distance of 3300 miles. Israel has never acknowledged that it has nuclear bombs. Leonard Spector estimates they have at least 50 or 60 warheads. The Jewish state has also been implicated in the theft of "heavy water" from Norway, and of weapons-grade uranium from the United States. Third world countries use what is known as "heavy water" in making their nuclear materials.'

What Does This Portend? We should present one more fact first that is most probably a major key. An official of the Israeli government left for a surprise visit to Moscow on November 26. He will have been the highest ranking Israeli official to visit the Soviet Union since relations were broken between the two countries in 1967. Abraham Tamir, director-general in the foreign affairs ministry didn't inform his boss, Shimon Peres, or any other ranking official, of the 36-hour visit, according to the Israel leadership. Peres said he was "stupefied" by the announcement.

It is possible that Shimon Peres didn't know. But Yitshak Shamir almost certainly had to know and probably ordered him to make the trip. Abraham Tamir went to Moscow to present an ultimatum.

The Soviet Union's "checkmate" of the West is envisioned through the development of the Palestinian children's Intafada and then the call for an independent Palestinian state. They believe, in my mind, that Israel, with the help of the United States, will not permit the Palestinians to have a home land nor an independent state. This, in turn, will cause the entire Moslem world to become totally committed to the Jihad or holy war. Remember, Jerusalem is a holy city to the Moslem world, as well as the Jews and the Christians, and the Moslems want it.

Another Middle-East war will start, this time with the total participation of the Moslem world against the Israelis. If they fight with the same tenacity and dedication as the Afghans did and the same willingness to die for their cause as the Iranians and Iraqis did, then it truly will be a major conflict. Also, this time Russia will participate and that is where the 10,000 tanks, 8500 artillery systems and 800 fighter planes will be used. Of course, that would not be the total participation by Russia, by any means.

They believe that Europe will not support Israel in this fight and it is possible they are right in this assessment. Europe is drawing closer to Nationalist Russia and they are showing their intentions in the current support of the Palestinians.

The Kremlin also knows that if the United States provides support for the Israelis, then Russia will turn loose all of the guerrilla forces that are already in place here in the United States. They are here and in place. Make no mistake about that. The U.S. does not have the forces to handle such a problem without bringing back the troops from Europe. If we haven't had the troops to stop these guerrillas from coming across the border, then we don't have the troops to stop them from causing untold damage here in our country.

The major threat is not yet defined! International Zionism has determined that if they can't have Palestine and Jerusalem, then nobody can have it. Most of them may not be very religious, but they are devout on this issue. They are willing to obliterate totally the real estate on which they now sit, along with as much of the rest of the world that they can. It is called "The Scorched-Earth" policy. They have 50 or 60 nuclear warheads and the missiles and aircraft to deliver them.

They also believe that the United States is going to help them. That is the ultimatum that Abraham Tamir presented to Moscow. Russia was told not to enter into this conflict with the threat of a nuclear conflagration.

Why Do They Believe That? This is best explained from their own writings. From the New American View for December 1, 1988, we quote this article:

"Author Anne Roiphe, writing in Present Tense magazine, published by the American Jewish Committee, provides a revealing analysis of that modern American Jewish political phenomenon-the neoconservative movement, which she says grew out of Jewish disenchantment with communism after Israel's victorious SixDay War in 1967. According to Roiphe, `...some of the Jews who turned to the right were soured by more than just anti-Soviet feeling. Some of this anti communism was inspired by the desire to ride to safety on the backs of the powerful, the rich, the corporations, the old-moneyed interests, the Central Intelligence Agency, white Middle America.

`A group of Jewish intellectuals, some of whom had themselves flirted with communism in their youth, now looked for safety, security and protection for the Jews, and where best to find it but in the superpatriots, wrapped tightly in the American flag, in the American comforts of nostalgia and white Christian power.'

"And she writes, `The Jewish community would never again sit back and let Jewish interests be set aside for American ones.' Thus, the root desire of neoconservatism is `to protect the community, by folding it into the state, by making it a valued yes-man, by identifying its interests with those of the people with money and power and, above all, armaments.

`A people engaged in an anti-communist crusade will not have time or interest to turn against Jews. They will support a strong Israel as a domino in their theory of defense against Soviet spheres of influence.'

"To Roiphe's mind-and to the neoconservatives-American Jews are merely temporary guests in this country. `It would be foolish,' she writes, `for us now to think of America as anything more than a host country.'

"As for dual loyalty, Roiphe says: `The problem of dual loyalty is a very sensitive one. It is of the utmost importance that Americans do not perceive Jews as being a special interest group that would sell out America for Israel in a time of conflict. But the problem of dual loyalty cannot be swept under some rug. It exists and is not just an anti-Semitic canard.'

"Roiphe then tries to explain away Jewish loyalty as roughly the equivalent of loving two parents or of a parent loving two children. But the analogies do not wash. And she finally, reluctantly, implies the Jew's `special need for the state of Israel' is probably greater than the attachment to America.

"Therefore, she writes. `The Jewish turn to the right is ...when all the rationalizing and intellectualizing are done...a wish to be part of the mighty forces of the West, the invincible forces of Good. Jews with an army, an Israeli army and an American army on their side, cannot be shoved off the globe again.'" End of quotes from the New American View.

Will We Or Will We Not Support Them? I believe that George Shultz spoke with a "knee-jerk reaction" before he thought it out when Arafat asked for a visa to come to speak to the UN. President Reagan initially supported Shultz because the total implications had not yet been assessed. When the opinions of all of the nations of the world were unanimously against Israel, our government agreed to start talks with the PLO. Whether that decision is only temporary remains to be seen. We must recognize that Gorbechev came to the UN to speak on Dec. 7, 1988 which was AFTER Abraham Tamir visited Moscow on Nov. 27, 1988. Gorbechev also met with Reagan and Bush on Governor's Island in New York on Dec.7th. What all did they talk about?

The elections in Israel have been over for almost two months but a government has not yet been formed because they have not, until just now, been able to agree what the coalition will be. That is the way it works is a parliamentary system.

The coalition, whatever it is, will be vehemently against negotiating with the PLO. Sources in Congress are sure that the new Israeli government will agree to an international peace conference in compliance with the desires of the United States but only if the United States will accept the idea of the Israelis totally destroying the Intafada uprising with an iron fist to include the killing of many Palestinians in the process.

The congressional source was reported to have said, "They not only want us to have blood on our hands, too, but they want us to be party to the death of the PLO. And I mean that literally. But the tragedy doesn't end there. When all is said and done, The Palestinians will end up with at most some sort of limited local autonomy. They will not have gotten their freedom. They will still be under Israel's heel. And the U.S. will be seen in the eyes of the world as a co-conspirator in a bloody, genocidal crime."

The Israelis hope to accomplish this agreement for a peace conference and receive the tacit approval of the United States for the genocidal attack on the PLO during this "lame duck" period before George Bush takes office.

Yitshak Shamir, in making this decision, is accepting the "checkmate" of the Soviet Union. Russia knew they would do this. Now, if the United States goes along with the Israeli plan, we will fall into the same checkmate. The whole world, with the exception of some within what is left of the British Commonwealth, will support the Moslem peoples and Russia. We will suffer irreparable damage as the world's leader.

It seems logical that the Israelis will use the time while they are trying to crush the PLO, to make their intended air attack on the missile site in Saudi Arabia. Their thinking would be to "get the attention" of the Arabs to force the PLO to submit. In reality, it would be like lighting a match to see if there is any gasoline in a large gasoline tank!

Will there be a significant war in the Mideast because of the facts and reasoning that is reported in this issue? It seems very possible. Will the United States be forced into it because of the Israeli lobby in this country? I don't know. The American people are finally awakening to the inordinate power that the Jewish lobby has in Washington. Whether it is too late or not remains to be seen.

To help us understand the ramifications and possibilities of this, I would like to recommend that you read two messages that Pastor F.E. Pitts gave to the United States Congress on February 22 and 23, 1857. That was 131 years ago! I will quote some opening remarks in the introduction of a booklet titled The U.S.A. In Bible Prophecy that will give you an insight into these brilliant sermons.

First, the "Introduction". "Modern radio and TV evangelists often say, 'Israel is the most important nation in the world in the eyes of God.' Many claim the God of the Christian Bible will curse individuals and even whole nations if they speak or act in any way against 'God's Chosen People, Israel'

One of their favorite prophesy passages is Ezekiel 38, invasion of 'the mountains of Israel' by 'Gog and Magog.' Most identify Magog as modern Russia and Palestine as Israel and say, 'Russia will invade Palestine.'

This book contains two sermons preached in 1857 by a Rev. F.E. Pitts to a joint session of the Houses of the U.S. Congress. This was only 80 years after we became a nation. In these sermons, preached 4 years before our Civil War, Rev. Pitts said the two great powers described in Ezekiel 38 (and in other prophesies), which would be the protagonists in the last battle fought upon the earth, would be 'The United States of America-and Russia.' He went on, speaking of that future conflict between the U.S. and Russia, 'We look to the future for the finale of these startling wonders, to be fulfilled in a conflict that will enlist all nations, stir the world with commotion, and drench the earth with blood.'

If Rev. Pitts, before our Civil War and 60 years before the Communist conquest of Russia, could accurately predict, not just that Russia would become a great power, but that she would make a war on both Christianity and America, certainly his whole discourse on Bible prophecy deserves a most careful consideration by all Americans. Remember, Russia was both Christian and friendly to America at the time he spoke...

Now for a page titled, "To The American Public". "The theory of Armageddon, by the Rev. F.E. Pitts, has been in course of preparation for years. Immense research and mental labor have brought it into being: For nearly two years it has been before the public and met the favorable notice of many of the ablest journals and reviews in America. Learned theologians, civilians and statesmen have freely accredited its truthfulness, and mathematicians pronounce its chronological argument demonstZation. Indeed, almost all who examine it believe it. The exceptions to this rule are generally found amongst the subjects of the British Crown, or those who imagine that England, par excellence, is the model of the nations.

Having learned that Armageddon leaves the autocracy of Britain in the whirlpool too, they have become offended, and of course denounce it. (emphasis mine.-ed.)

Mr. Pitts believing most firmly the principles and positions of the theory to be true, and that a correct appreciation of the subject is of untold interest to the American people, he has, from motives sincerely patriotic and pious, discussed the claims of this sublime theory before thousands of our countrymen in various portions of the United States.

Mr. Pitts certainly deserves the highest praise of his countrymen. Modest and unassuming, though a giant in intellect, and richly stored with the treasure of science, he has brought out a work that must elevate and encourage our noble confederacy more effectually than any book that has appeared since the birth of the Republic.

The work has now passed into the fourth edition, and will, we have no doubt, soon be issued by the hundred thousand. This book should be in the hands of every American citizen, because of the advance that it will give to true patriotism, and the enthusiasm that it has and necessarily will create for the Union." That is the end of the quotes from the book. This book has been reprinted by Hoffman Printing Co., PO Box 1529, Muskogee, Oklahoma 74402.

God works in mysterious ways. Everything that has been discussed in this issue has come from the minds and works of men. God works that way and we must understand that. Just like in the days of Alexander. God knew that Alexander was going to change totally the thought processes of the people in what is known as the Bible land. God knew that Alexander was going to force a merger of the Eastern thought processes with that of the West. God allowed it but He took Alexander's life at the age of 33. In my mind, that was a judgment of God for what Alexander did. Yet, God knew that it was going to be done. So it is with what is happening this very moment in the Mideast.

Whatever happens to complete the story, God is in command. From my studies and understanding, 1989 (and perhaps extending through the decade that follows) appears to be very, very dangerous years. The Zionists in that mini-state in the Mideast will fight it out alone, if need be, because that is their basic belief.

Are you spiritually and physically prepared as much as you can be? In I Tim.5:8 we read this, "But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

INTELLIGENCE BRIEFS

Dynamite Found On Island In Mississippi River. Sixty seven pounds of explosives, packed in two commercial boxes, were found on an island in the Mississippi River near St. Paul Minn. The explosives were cached on an island which is very near one of the major bridges crossing the Mississippi River.

We have presented information in the past that guerrillas have been ordered to enter the Mississippi River country and locate near major bridges. They were to obtain explosives, small boats and other equipment and wait for orders to destroy the bridges. We have reported that bombs were found under bridges around Salem, Indiana in another issue. There was, at least, one bomb that exploded in another Indiana town.

Telephone Taps. The United States National Security Agency \(NSA\) is working with the English government to install an automatic monitoring system for use on all international and domestic telephone calls. The project is designated the P145 and is now almost completed. This new Anglo-American plan for a global electronic spy system is far more extensive and sophisticated than originally planned. The system will be run by the GCHQ at Cheltenham, England. However, the equipment is located at an American base in Menwith, England. There will be four major surveillance activities to include: phone tapping as well as a system for long-range monitoring of radio signals and satellite communications.

This system, or one similar, is already in existence in the United States according to received reports. Preselect words are entered into their computer and when these words are said during a phone call, the recorders automatically record the conversation. Of course, all of this started out "for the defense of the west" but now can include "other" purposes. A documentary simply titled "Surveillance" was aired by HBO several years ago. It showed some of the exotic systems that are currently used and it was very revealing. Shades of Orwell-1984!

SEDITION TRIAL DOCUMENTARY

A video documentary on the history of sedition in our country has been produced and is now available for your viewing. This documentary is an eye opening account of the now infamous seditious conspiracy trial held in Fort Smith, Arkansas this year. The documentary reviews the history of the sedition laws in the United States and then reviews how some government administrations have misused this law as a political tool.

Not only is the first sedition trial of 1787 discussed but the very well known trial conducted during World War II is covered in great detail. One of the gentlemen who was charged in that trial is interviewed and the information he reveals is astounding. The defense attorneys are interviewed with information revealed that everyone should know.

This documentary shows, without a shadow of a doubt, that the sedition law has been misused by corrupt politicians to deny the first amendment rights of free speech and assembly.

It is suggested that you obtain a copy of the video, review it yourself, and then show it at your church or club and ask if they think it could happen again and to them? Take it to your local high school and request a civics, government or humanities teacher to view it and share it with their class. Take it to your local sheriffs office or police department, particularly if you live in a small town, and ask to show it to the officers and then ask for their comment.

Public cable companies are usually required by contract to allow so many hours per month of public-access programming and often want and need programming. Here is an opportunity to inform the public of the current and present danger. The cable companies require a three-quarter inch format and this is available for loan. A $25.00 deposit is returned when the tape is returned.

The title of this documentary is SEDITION ...USSA STYLE and can be obtained from VIDEO TRUTH NETWORK, P.O. BOX 766, LAPORTE, COLORADO, 80535. The price is just $27.95 for the one-half inch format for your home VCR. I think you will be pleased.

We here at CHRISTIAN CRUSADE FOR TRUTH sincerely believe that we need to reach the great number of "unchurched Christians" who are rejecting the modern "churchianity" and "religiosity". It is they who are tired of sitting in their mortgaged churches and they want to know the what, who, when, where, and why that has caused our once great Christian Republic to be now the greatest debtor nation in the world. We need to reach them, by the millions. That is the job for you and me, the remnant. God always has His 7000 who won't bow their knee to Baal.
