FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PETER
ADOKO-ENCHILL...*THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH*Symbols of the Holy Spirit

Water. The symbolism of water signifies the Holy Spirit's action in Baptism, since after the invocation of the Spirit it becomes the efficacious sacramental sign of new birth: just as the gestation of our first birth took place in water so the water of Baptism truly signifies that our birth into the divine life is given to us in the Holy Spirit.

As "by one Spirit we were all baptized," so we are also "made to drink of one Spirit." Thus the Spirit is also personally the living water welling up from Christ crucified as its source and welling up in us to eternal life.

Anointing. The symbolism of anointing with oil also signifies the Holy Spirit, to the point of becoming a synonym for the Holy Spirit. In Christian initiation anointing is the sacramental sign of Confirmation, called "Chrismation" in the Churches of the East. Its full force can be grasped only in relation to the primary anointing accomplished by the Holy Spirit, that of Jesus. Christ (in Hebrew "messiah") means the "anointed" by God's Spirit. There were several anointed ones of the Lord in the Old Covenant, pre-eminently King David. But Jesus is God's Anointed in a unique way: The humanity the Son assumed was entirely anointed by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit established him as "Christ". The Virgin Mary conceived Christ by the Holy Spirit who, through the angel, proclaimed him the Christ at his birth, and prompted Simeon to come to the temple to see the Christ of the Lord. The Spirit filled Christ and the power of the Spirit went out from him in his acts of healing and of saving. Finally, it was the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead. Now, fully established as the "Christ" in his humanity victorious over death, Jesus pours out the Holy Spirit abundantly until "the saints" constitute--in their union with the humanity of the Son of God--that perfect man "to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ": "The whole Christ," in St. Augustine's expression. (to be continued)

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA
SAINT OF THE IMPOSSIBLE Feast Day May 22

Saint Rita is patron saint of hopeless cases. Need more be said as to why she is the favorite saint of so many? She and Saint Jude are the powerhouses of those facing difficulties in their lives. She faced many hurts and hardships in her own life as well -- an abusive husband, death of her two sons and postponement of her desire to become a nun. Yet God granted her many special favors in her spiritual life which she continually shares with all who call upon her assistance and intercession. The beautiful story for which she is remembered is that near the end of her life Rita was bedridden at the convent. When asked if she desired anything from her old home Rita responded by asking for a rose from the garden. It was January, and no one expected to find one due to the season. However, when her relative went to the house, a single blooming rose was found in the garden, and her cousin brought it back to Rita at the convent. She is also the unofficial patron saint of baseball for all you Mariners fans out there...

PRAYER TO SAINT VINCENT de PAUL

*Almighty God,

to serve you in the person of those in need:
Grant that we, following his example,
may fulfill your commandments
by defending and supporting the poor,
and by loving you with all our hearts,
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*
