The authority of the FCSA Match Chairman shall supersede the role of a Match Director.

It shall be the duty of the Match Chairman to provide a schedule of sanctioned FCSA shooting competitions to the Editor for publication in the FCSA newsletter Very High Power as soon as a date for any future FCSA shooting competition has been set.

3. Regional Match Director: Regional Match Directors (Match Director) are selected by the FCSA Match Chairman with the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors to conduct sanctioned FCSA shooting competitions. They are responsible for the conduct of FCSA fifty caliber shooting competitions in accordance with the guidelines established by these rules. It shall be the duty of the Match Director to secure a date, time and location for a sanctioned FCSA shooting competition (match) and advertise the match in the newsletter Very High Power. He shall be responsible for the organization of the match including procuring all necessary equipment, the appointing of Range Officers, the collecting of all fees, the safe conduct of the match, the issuing of prizes/awards and the collection of accurate record information regarding the performance of competitors at the match. The authority of the Match Director shall only be superseded by the FCSA Match Chairman.

Range officers shall be responsible to the Match Director and their duties shall include the safe conduct of the firing line, the efficient operation of the pits/butts, the accurate recording and collection of match scores and serving as Protest Committee representatives. Appointed Range Officers shall have the same authority as a Match Director while operating under his authority at an FCSA sanctioned match.

5. Statistical Officer: Shall be appointed by the Match Director and shall be responsible for the accurate collection and tabulation of all shooting scores that result from an FCSA sanctioned match. He shall report the results of the match to the Match Director for the distribution of awards/prizes to competitors, to the FCSA Secretary and to the FCSA Historian, who will maintain a permanent record of match results at FCSA headquarters and to the Editor of the FCSA quarterly newsletter Very High Power.

COMPETITOR'S DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Any competitor participating in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition must be a member of the FCSA. The competitor must be (18) years of age or a participant in the Junior Shooter's Program.

2. Any competitor who participates in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition shall be responsible to the Match Director to conduct himself safely and in accordance with FCSA Match Rules. Any competitor who refuses to comply with any FCSA match rule or the direction of the Match Director after being instructed to do so, can be disqualified from the shooting competition upon the recommendation of a majority vote of the Protest Committee.

3. Registration:

A. Registration at least two weeks in advance for a scheduled FCSA sanctioned shooting competition is recommended. Competitors who do not register at least two weeks prior to a scheduled match shall be assessed a five ($5.00) dollar fee in addition to the announced match fee. All match registrations, pre-registrations or walk-ons must be received by 3:00 PM on the day before the match begins. Any exceptions shall be at the Match Directors discretion.

B. Five dollars ($5.00) of the match fee for each class of competition the competitor registers to compete in shall be remitted to the Treasurer of FCSA. These funds shall be remitted by the Match Director within two (2) weeks after the conclusion of the competition. Accompanying these funds the Match Director shall include a completed and signed 'Match Income & Expense Accounting Form'. This form is available through the Treasurer of FCSA. A copy of the completed and signed form should also be given to the range, club, or association that has hosted the competition along with any payment due the hosting organization.

C. It is the responsibility of a competitor, at the time of registration, to notify the Match Director of how many classes of competition he will be participating in and if the rifles he will be using in the competition will be shared with another competitor. It is recommended that each competitor complete an FCSA "Rifle Data Sheet" for each rifle being used in an FCSA sanctioned competition.

D. All competitors are responsible to sign in with the Match Director immediately upon arrival at a range to participate in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition.

E. All competitors are responsible for signing a waiver of responsibility and release of liability statement and signing a statement indicating they are familiar with the rules of competition for each class of competition they are participating in, before the competitor will be allowed to compete in any FCSA sanctioned shooting competition. The waiver of responsibility and release of liability statement form and the form acknowledging the competitor is familiar with the rules of competition shall be provided by the Match Director.

F. All competitors shall have their rifles weighed and checked for safety at a time prescribed by the Match Director at each FCSA sanctioned competition. It is the responsibility of the Match Director or his designated Range Officer to insure that all rifles are weighed and meet safety requirements in accordance with FCSA rules and class of competition prior to the beginning of the match.

G. The Match Director, or his representative will designate shooting relay assignments and bench assignments after the range is closed to shooting on sighter day. It will be the responsibility of the competitor to know his assignments prior to the start of the match.

4. Match Readiness:

A. It is the duty of each competitor to complete two (2) consecutive relays of service in the pits/butts to be eligible to compete in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition. It is expected that all competitors will personally perform their pits/butts duty as assigned. The Match Director shall make all assignments to Pits/butts duty, and will do so as soon as practical after a competitor signs in upon arrival at the range. A competitor must request and receive approval from the Match Director for another person to perform his pit/butts duty. The competitor is fully responsible for the capabilities and performance of any alternate person who is sent to perform his pits/butts duty. Any disciplinary action warranted as a result of the performance or failure of the alternate shall be born by the original competitor. Failure to complete the obligation of pits/butts duty by a competitor will result in the disqualification of the competitor from the shooting competition.

B. It is the duty of the competitor to advise the Match Director if a scheduling error has occurred that requires the competitor to be assigned to the pits/butts at the same time he is scheduled to shoot. The Match Director shall reschedule the competitor to meet the requirements of the match.

C. A Competitor's Meeting shall be held by the Match Director each day prior to the beginning of the match. It is the duty of the competitor to attend the Competitor's Meeting each day. Should the competitor fail to attend one of the meetings without the permission of the Match Director it may result in the disqualification of the competitor by the Match Director, upon a recommendation of the Protest Committee.

D. Each competitor is responsible to remove their equipment from a shooting bench as quickly as possible after they have completed their shooting relay so that the next relay may prepare for competition.

E. Each competitor is responsible to clean up their own trash and discards to insure range cleanliness. Violations of this requirement or any FCSA safety rule may result in a penalty of five ($5.00) dollars being assessed to the competitor, at the discretion of the Match Director with the approval of the Protest Committee.

5: Physically Disabled Shooters:

A. Any competitor who, because of a physical disability, cannot fire from one or more of the prescribed shooting positions outlined in these rules, or who must use special equipment when firing, is allowed to petition the Match Director for permission to assume an accommodating position or to use modified equipment, or both to enable him/her to safely compete in any sanctioned FCSA class of competition. This petition can be in the form of a written request from the person concerned to the Match Director outlining in detail the reason why the special accommodation or special equipment should be allowed and a detailed description of any modified equipment or shooting position, or it can be in the form of a verbal request at the time of the match.

B. A Match Director who receives a request from a physically disabled competitor shall be responsible for evaluating the request for approval or disapproval on a case by case basis. A Match Director is allowed to evaluate any reasonable source of information or documentation to determine the validity of a physical disability, including the opinion of his/her Protest Committee regarding a final decision. The decision of the Match Director will be final.

C. The purpose for allowing special accommodations for physically disabled competitors is to encourage participation by people who might otherwise not be able to participate in the sport of long distance accuracy shooting. The purpose for not allowing an accommodation would be to prevent creating an unfair advantage for a person requesting an accommodation.

D. Any person who is allowed to compete in a sanctioned FCSA competition, and who has been granted permission to employ special accommodations associated with a physical disability is eligible for all awards and records associated with their competition in that class of competition.

RANGE SAFETY

1. Range Safety at any FCSA sanctioned shooting competition is of paramount concern. The Match Director of any FCSA shooting competition or his designated Range Officer has the responsibility and authority as prescribed by the FCSA Match Rules and FCSA By Laws to ensure the safe conduct of the match. The Match Director shall have the authority to disqualify any competitor for unsafe conduct or to remove any piece of equipment that has been determined to be unsafe for participation in the shooting competition.

If the Match Director disqualifies a competitor or a piece of equipment from a shooting competition for safety reasons, It shall be the duty of the Match Director to submit a complete written report to the FCSA Match Chairman immediately following the shooting competition.

2. Decisions made by the Match Director and Protest Committee regarding safety violations are final and cannot be appealed.

3. Firing Line Safety: It is the duty of the Match Director to control and conduct a safe firing line at all times at FCSA sanctioned shooting competitions. Firing line commands will be given by the Match Director (firing Line Officer) or his designated Range Officer. Competitors in FCSA shooting competitions shall obey all commands given on the firing line by the firing Line Officer. Any competitor who fails to obey the commands of the firing Line Officer can be disqualified from the match at the direction of the Match Director with the recommendation of the Protest Committee.

4. Open Actions: It is recommended the bolt be removed from any rifle that has been brought to the firing line and the competitor is not immediately preparing to fire. If it is not convenient to remove the bolt entirely, the bolt should be in the open position at all times unless the competitor is engaged in shooting. In any event, all bolts shall be open or removed from the rifle whenever a “cease fire” is called by the Firing Line Officer.

5. Position of Muzzle: whenever a rifle has been brought to the firing line and set up for competition, the muzzle of the rifle shall be pointed down range in a safe direction. Any exception shall be approved by the Firing Line Officer. All competitors firing a bipod rifle shall ensure the muzzle of their rifle is pointed at the impact area when the rifle is unattended on the firing line.

6. Hangfires/Misfires: Any person competing in a sanctioned FCSA shooting competition who experiences a hangfire or misfired round must immediately notify the Firing Line Control Officer. Any competitor who experiences a hangfire/misfire, shall wait at least thirty (30) seconds before opening the bolt of the rifle and shall notify everyone near his shooting bench that a misfire has occurred. The area immediately to the rear of the competitors bench shall be cleared of all other competitors and spectators before the rifle bolt is opened.

A competitor who experiences a series of misfires/hangfires shall be evaluated by the Firing Line Control Officer to determine if the rifle or ammunition being used is safe for the competition. The Firing Line Control Officer shall notify the Match Director of his findings and the Match Director shall determine if the competitor can safely be allowed to continue the competition.

7. Changing of Pits/Butts Crew: During the time when the pits/butts crew is changing between relays, the range safety officer and/or match director has the discretion to allow a competitor to remove and/or attend to their equipment, including the firearm, from the firing line once the range safety officer and/or match director has determined in their sole discretion, that the firearm is unloaded and safe for handling.

In addition, a competitor may add equipment to their firing position, however, a competitor may not bring a firearm to the firing line until the pits are sealed. No open ammunition is allowed on the firing line during the pits/butts crew change.

8. Alcoholic Beverages: No alcoholic beverages will be consumed on the range during an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition. Violation of this rule by a competitor shall result in his disqualification upon recommendation of the Protest Committee.

9. Use of Drugs: Any competitor of a sanctioned FCSA shooting competition who is determined to be under the influence of any drug, shall be evaluated by the Match Director and Protest Committee for his ability to participate in the competition safely. The competitor may be disqualified from the competition based on a majority vote of the Protest Committee.

10. Eye and Ear Protection: All FCSA members registered and participating in an FCSA shooting competition shall wear adequate eye and ear protection on the firing line and while in the pits whenever firing is being conducted. All spectators of an FCSA shooting competition shall wear adequate eye & ear protection when in the vicinity of the firing line while firing is being conducted.

11. Personal Communications: The personal use of cell phones, or similar electronic communications, is not allowed between the Pit and the Line during a Match except with permission of a Line or Pit Official. No personal communications device is allowed to be used in the Pits or on the Line while there is active firing.

FCSA CLASSES OF COMPETITION

1. Light Class Fifty Caliber: Shall be restricted to a rifle that shoots a .50 cal. BMG or a .50 cal DTC cartridge and is capable of chambering an FCSA approved chamber gauge that has a maximum outside neck diameter of .554 inches. The rifle shall be restricted to a total overall weight of thirty two pounds and eight ounces (32 lbs 8.00 oz.). The maximum weight of the rifle will include any equipment attached to the rifle that would be used by the competitor during the shooting competition. The rifle stock shall be restricted to a maximum forend width of three and one half inches (3 and 1/2 in.) The forend of the rifle will be that portion of the rifle stock toward the muzzle of the rifle, in front of the forward most retaining screw that holds the rifle receiver into the rifle stock.

The winners of the Light Class Fifty Caliber competition shall be determined according to their standings in each of two (2) categories. The categories are Aggregate Group, the smallest accumulated extreme spread average group from all record groups fired during the light class relays, and Total Score from all record groups fired during the light class relays, except in the case of a tie. (See Scoring, paragraph 5, and Awards paragraphs B, C, D, and E).

2. Heavy Class Fifty Caliber: Any rifle that shoots a bullet with a diameter of .510/.511 inches and has a maximum overall weight of fifty (50 lbs.) Pounds. The maximum weight of the rifle will include any equipment attached to the rifle that would be used by the competitor during the shooting competition.

The winners of the Heavy Class Fifty Caliber competition shall be determined according to their standings in each of two (2) categories. The categories are Aggregate Group, the smallest accumulated extreme spread average group from all record groups fired during the heavy class relays, and Total Score from all record groups fired during the heavy class relays, except in the case of a tie. (See Scoring, paragraph 5, and Awards paragraphs B, C, D, and E).

3. Unlimited Class Fifty Caliber: Any barreled receiver that fires a bullet with a diameter of .510/.511 inches.

The winner of the Unlimited Class Fifty Caliber competition shall be determined according to their standings in each of two(2) categories. The categories are Aggregate Group, the smallest accumulated extreme spread average group from all record groups fired during the unlimited class relays, and Total Score from all record groups fired during the unlimited class relays, except in the case of a tie.(See Scoring, paragraph 5, and Awards paragraphs B,C,D, and E).

4. Hunter Class Fifty Caliber: Competitors will shoot and compete from a prone shooting position with rifles equipped with bipods as defined below.

Prone: To shoot from the ground with the aid of an optional ground mat and/or blast sheet. The use of an earth-only trench for the bipod feet will be allowed. Anchoring of the rifle to the ground by any means is prohibited and the firearm must be free to be lifted straight up from the firing position.

Bipods: Bipods must be able to fold forward or backward and be removable from the rifle. The bipod can only provide two points of contact to the ground and must be mounted to the rifle forward of the trigger guard.

The official FCSA bipod foot gauge will be used to determine if a competitor's bipod feet are within limits set by these rules. The bipod feet can have a maximum footprint area no larger than that which will fit into an official FCSA gauge.

The FCSA gauge will be placed on a flat surface such as the ground or a tabletop. The competitor will insert each leg of the bipod into the gauge. If the competitor's bipod foot fits into the gauge, then that configuration of bipod foot shall be deemed acceptable for competition. If either foot of a bipod does not fit into the gauge, then that competitor will be allowed to shoot in one of the other three classes of competition that the rifle may qualify in.

The official FCSA gauge will be cut from a standard four-inch (4") ABS or Schedule 40 pipe cut to a height of two inches. The interior will measure a nominal four inches (4") in diameter. Competitors, from locally available materials, may readily build such a gauge so that they can verify, on their own, that the bipod feet they intend to use in competition do not exceed the above-stipulated dimensions.

Rubber or non-metal feet are allowed. Spikes on the bottom of the bipod feet can be a maximum of 1.5 inches long. Bipods that are of spike design must have a marking on each leg which is plainly visible 1.5 inches from the bottom of the leg's spike. The marking on the spike portion of the bipod is to ensure that the spike does not enter the ground to a depth exceeding 1.5 inches. The 1.5 inches is the depth limitation that a bipod can be driven into the ground during shooting. Rollers or track/rail devices are prohibited.

Rear Rest or Support: A soft pliable bag may be used. Monopods are allowed. A monopod is any device attached to the rifle at any point to the rear of the trigger guard and used for the purpose of raising or lowering point of aim. The monopod must use a foot which conforms to the same dimensional requirement as a bipod foot but may not have a spike. The monopod must be attached to the rifle when determining overall weight of the rifle.

Rifle Weight: Rifles in this competition may not exceed fifty pounds (50lbs) total weight in shooting readiness.

Chambering: Any cartridge using a .510-.511 projectile.

The winner of the Hunter Class Fifty Caliber competition shall be determined according to their standings in each of two(2) categories. The categories are Aggregate Group, the smallest accumulated extreme spread average group from all record groups fired during the hunter class relays, and Total Score from all record groups fired during the hunter class relays, except in the case of a tie.(See Scoring, paragraph 5, and Awards paragraphs B,C,D, and E).

5. Junior Class:

A. A junior shooter is defined as anyone under the age of eighteen (18). A junior shooter must be at least twelve (12) years of age to compete in any type match. The Junior Shooter and Parent or Guardian must sign a waiver of liability at the time of registration.

B. Junior shooters must wear a designated colored vest or hat at all times while on a firing line.

C. Dedicated adult supervision, specifically a parent, legal guardian, or authorized person is required to accompany the Junior shooter at all times while on the firing line at all FCSA events. In addition to their parent or legal guardian, Junior shooters may have additional coaches at any time.

D. All Junior shooters who are not accompanied by a parent or legal guardian must deliver to the Match Director or the office of the FCSA appropriate authorization authorizing the accompanying adult the care, custody and control of the Junior shooter along with the authority to consent to medical treatment.

E. The winners of the Junior World Champion awards will be based upon the best combination group and score while shooting in the Junior Class. The Junior shooter with the lowest Combo Aggregate in the Junior class will be the Junior World Champion. Junior shooters may shoot any recognized class of equipment in the Junior Class. Junior shooters may register for multiple classes; however, any additional class a Junior shoots at the World Championships is for practice and will not count towards any prizes or awards, with the exception of prizes donated specifically as Junior prizes for a particular class or event.

F. At Regional Matches the Match Director may choose to offer a Junior Class, or allow Junior Shooters to compete with the Adults on equal standing for awards and prizes.

APPROVED AMMUNITION

1. Ammunition: all ammunition used in FCSA sanctioned shooting competitions shall be of the “fixed” design.

2. Projectiles: Acceptable projectiles are military ball, jacketed lead core, armor piercing, solid brass/bronze or suitable solid steel. Those projectiles that are not acceptable include tracer, incendiary, explosive or flechette type projectiles. The type of ammunition used in FCSA sanctioned matches are also governed by the existing state laws in the state where a particular FCSA sanctioned match is held. In many states the possession of armor piercing ammunition is prohibited by law and it is the responsibility of a competitor to be aware of the laws governing the use of ammunition in a particular host state.

3. Unsafe Ammunition: Unsafe surplus ammunition shall be banned from any FCSA sanctioned shooting competition. It shall be the responsibility of the Match Director or his designated Range Officer to make a determination regarding the suitability of surplus or improperly reloaded ammunition. Poor quality surplus or reloaded ammunition displaying characteristics such as corrosion, damaged brass, improperly seated primers or damaged projectiles will not be allowed to be used in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition.

APPROVED RIFLE EQUIPMENT

1. Rifle Rests: A rifle rest is allowed to support the forend of the rifle. A rifle rest is also allowed to support the rear of the rifle. Rifle rests are restricted to the sand bag type made from soft pliable leather or a soft pliable material, filled only with sand, with a minimum of one half (1/2in) inch thickness of sandbag between the rifle stock and the rifle rest system wherever the stock comes in contact with the sandbag. The rests cannot be attached to the rifle itself or connected to each other. Front and rear rests must be movable independent of each other. Neither rest is allowed to be attached to the shooting bench and the rifle must be able to be lifted vertically independent of the rest. Rifle rests shall not restrain the recoil of the rifle. Drag reducing tape may be applied to the surface of the rest.

2. Bipods: Bipods are acceptable in any class of FCSA sanctioned shooting competition.

RANGE EQUIPMENT

1. Targets: Only the Official FCSA Target will be used for Sanctioned Matches. The FCSA Official 1000 yard target is 67 inches by 72 inches and has a 24 inch black center that extends out through the 8th ring. The designation of this target is MR or MR-1. The replacement center for this target is described as MRC. The only approved change to these targets is the recommended addition of a white 3 x 3 white square to the center of the target.

All competitors must use the same target during a match.

2. Wind Flags: It is recommended that wind flags be used at all FCSA sanctioned shooting competitions. The placement of wind flags on the firing range during a shooting competition will be at the discretion of the Match Director.

This does not preclude competitors from using and placing their own wind flags/wind measuring devices on the range during a shooting competition.

3. Benches: It is the responsibility of the Match Director to ensure that shooting benches are available to match competitors at all FCSA sanctioned shooting competitions. Shooting benches shall be of a size, width and sturdiness adequate to support the weight of a fifty caliber rifle approved for use in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition and of a quality that will allow competitors to accurately fire their rifles. The Match Director will be responsible to ensure that shooting benches are of equal quality for all competitors. Personally owned shooting benches are not allowed in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition except in the unlimited class of competition.

MATCH PROCEDURE

1. Range Officer's Meeting: It is the responsibility of the Match Director to ensure that appointed Range Officers are instructed on their duties and responsibilities each day.

2. Competitors Meeting: The Match Director shall hold a competitors meeting prior to the start of the competition each day. The purpose of the meeting is to insure that competitors are aware of their assignments and any update regarding safety information. Attendance at the meeting is mandatory for all FCSA members who are registered to shoot in the competition unless excused by the Match Director. Failure to attend the meeting may result in the disqualification of the competitor by the Match Director upon a recommendation of the Protest Committee.

3. Start Time: All possible effort shall be made to start the match on the second day at the same time the match was started on the first day.

4. Course Of Fire: All Firing Line Control Commands Shall Be Given by The Match Director or His Designated Range Officer.

A. In any sanctioned FCSA shooting competition each competitor is responsible for completing three (3) five (5) shot groups, known as a "Record Group", each day of the competition, for each class of competition that he is registered for.

B. A "Relay" shall consist of three (3) periods of "sighter fire" and three (3) periods of "record group" fire. When the competition begins, the relay will start with a ten (10) minute period for the competitor to fire an unlimited number of sighter rounds at their target to zero their rifles as accurately as possible. During the "sighter" period, each round fired at the target will be marked for the competitor by a three (3) inch diameter, bright red spotter disk. (Black & White spotter disks shall be used for those competitors who are color blind.) The disk shall be moved each time a round is fired at the target and the previous hole in the target shall be patched. The only marker on the competitors target shall be his most recently fired round. At the completion of the ten (10) minute sighter period, the targets will be lowered and patched. The time period for the ten (10) minute sighter period shall be controlled by the firing Line Officer. As immediately as is practical after the sighter period has ended, a ten (10) minute period will commence for the competitor to fire his first "record group" consisting of five (5) bullets for score/group. Prior to the beginning of the ten minute record group time period, the Line Officer will ensure that each competitor has displayed 5 bullets on the bench or shooting mat for firing during the record group. Competitors are not allowed to have any more than 5 bullets on their bench or shooting mat during the record group.

i. During the “record group” time period, each round fired is marked with a spotter disk. The first bullet is marked with a three (3) inch bright red spotter disk. When the second (2nd) round is fired, the three (3) inch spotter disk is moved to the hole where the most recently fired round struck the target. A one and one half (1 ½) inch disk is then placed into the hole made by the first bullet fired. The larger three (3) inch spotter disk continues to be moved to the hole where the most recent bullet struck the competitors target. The smaller spotter disks are placed into the holes in the target as they are vacated by the larger disk. All of the spotter disks shall remain in the target until the target is scored by the Range Officer in charge of the pits/butts, ii. In those cases where a competitor fires two or more rounds so close together on his target that the red three (3) inch spotter disk would cover both holes, a bright green one and one half (1-1/2) inch spotter disk shall be placed into the hole of the last round fired, and the large spotter disk will be removed. This is to signify to the competitor that he has two or more rounds very near to each other on the target. The Range Officer in control of the pits/butts shall also relay verbal communication to the line control officer that the target in question just scored a green spotter. The line control officer shall then relay that information to the competitor who scored a green spotter.

iii. The communication to the competitor regarding scoring a green spotter disk is the only assistance allowed to be given to a competitor while he is firing one of his “record groups”. Any other form of coaching or assistance given to a competitor during the firing of a “record group” is forbidden by the FCSA Match Rules. Violation of this rule may lead to the disqualification of the competitor at the discretion of the Match

iv. After all competitors have completed their five (5) shot record group or the ten (10) minute "record group" period has expired, the targets shall be lowered for scoring. The time period for the ten (10) minute "record group" shall be controlled by the firing Line Officer.

v. After all targets have been scored for group and score by the range control officer in charge in the pits/butts, the targets will be patched and raised for the second (2nd) sighter period. Competitors shall be given three (3) minutes to fire an unlimited number of sighter rounds to again re-zero their rifles as accurately as possible. At the completion of the three (3) minute sighter period, the targets will be lowered and patched and the targets will be raised for the second five (5) shot "record group". The relay will continue as described until all competitors have had the opportunity to complete three (3) "sighter periods" and three (3) "record groups".

C. Missing the Target: If a competitor misses his target while shooting a "record group", the only assistance he is allowed to receive regarding the missed round is, the target puller in the pits/butts will not use the large three (3) inch spotter disk to mark the location of his last round. Verbal communication from the pits/butts or from a spectator to a competitor during the "record group" is forbidden by FCSA Match Rules.

If a competitor misses the target during a sighter period, the target puller in the pits/butts or any other person may coach or give whatever assistance is necessary to help the competitor zero his rifle accurately.

D. At the completion of a relay, the firing Line Officer shall call a cease fire. If the competitors on the firing line have another relay to shoot, the firing Line Officer shall announce a fifteen minute time period to prepare for the next relay. Competitors will use this period to change the rifles on their shooting benches and prepare for the next class/relay of shooting. If at the completion of a relay the competitors have completed all of their relays for that day and it is time to change the crews in the pits/butts, the firing Line Officer shall call a cease fire. The pits/butts will then be “unsealed” for personnel to return to the firing line area. During the time that personnel are exposed and moving from the protected area of the pits/butts back to the firing line area, competitors and spectators are not allowed near the shooting benches where rifles are set up. This is to insure that an accidental round is not fired down range while personnel are in the line of fire.

INSPECTION OF SHOOTING EQUIPMENT

1. At the beginning of each relay at any FCSA sanctioned shooting competition, the Match Director or his designated Range Officer shall conduct an inspection of the equipment being used by each competitor on the firing line. This inspection will include the rifles and rests and any other equipment being used by the competitor, to insure that each competitor is in compliance with FCSA Match Rules for the class of shooting competition he is preparing to fire.

2. Any competitor who has obtained the approval for the use of equipment during an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition shall not substitute any item of that equipment without approval from the Match Director. Violations of this rule shall result in the disqualification of the competitor from the match by the Match Director upon approval of the Protest Committee.

SCORING

1. Each “record group” fired in an FCSA sanctioned shooting competition shall be scored for extreme spread and numerical score. A "record group" shall consist of five (5) shots per target.

2. Scoring for Extreme Spread (Aggregate Group) will refer to the size of the five (5) shot group being measured. Scoring for extreme spread shall be accomplished in the following manner: Extreme spread measurement is recording the distance between the two (2) bullet holes in a competitors target that are the most distant from each other. The exact measurement recorded shall be the distance from the outer most edge of one hole to the inner most edge of the other hole to the nearest one sixteenth (1/16th) of an inch.

A. Aggregate group totals will be determined by the average of all six (6) record group sizes over the two (2) day match.

B. A competitor who misses the target shall be penalized by adding thirty-six (36) inches to his extreme spread measurement (aggregate group) for each recorded miss, up to a maximum of seventy-two (72) inches.

C. The only time a target is required to be measured closer than one sixteenth (1/16th) of an inch is when the target is establishing a new "world record" for group size. It is required that all targets qualifying as a new world record shall be measured by three (3) Range Officers, on a flat surface and the measurement shall be held to the nearest one thousandth (1/1000th) of an inch. Misses are given a score value of zero (0). X's are scored ten (10) points and all others are scored based on the numerical value of the scoring ring where the round is located.

B. Aggregate score totals shall be determined by the totals of all six (6) record groups over the two (2) day match.

C. Rounds which break the outer most edge of a scoring ring are given the score value of the higher value of the two scoring rings involved.

4. Two Rifle Score: The 2-rifle aggregate shall be calculated using the best 2 group and score of either, Heavy, Light, Unlimited or Hunter (Class) and be calculated by the following formula ((Competitors Best Class Aggregate Group+(50- Competitors Best Class Aggregate Score) + (Competitor's Second Best Class Aggregate Group+(50-Competitor's Second Best Class Aggregate Score)) / 2

If the score is still tied the winner shall be determined by the person who has the most number of 9's and then 8's, etc.. If the score remains tied they will engage in a single five (5) shot shoot off to determine a winner.

Ties in any FCSA shooting competition that is determined by aggregate group shall be determined by a single five (5) shot shoot off for smallest group.

ADVISORY OPINIONS

The FCSA Board of Directors will occasionally issue an Advisory Opinion of an Official Match Rule. These Opinions are offered to enhance the interpretation of the Rule and to aid the Match Directors in areas where uniform application has been in dispute.

Requests for Opinions should be addressed to the Rules Chairman in writing. The Opinions are numbered in consecutive order by year issued

Fifty Caliber Shooter Association

Official Match Rules

Advisory Opinion 7-1

That the FCSA Board of Directors interprets the phrase "To shoot from the ground", used in The Official Match Rules, FCSA Classes of Competition, Section 4, ¶ 2, Prone: (pg 11) to mean;

Shooting while lying prone upon the natural surface of the earth; minor enhancements notwithstanding. The surface should be initially as similar for all the participants in a match as possible. One of the challenges of Hunter Class is 'to shoot from the ground'.

The intent of the paragraph is to limit the material/substance allowed between the shooter and the ground to a minimum that is required for safety.

Fifty Caliber Shooter Association

Official Match Rules

Advisory Opinion 8-1

That the FCSA Board of Directors interprets the word “target” when used in reference to Scoring in The Official Match Rules to mean; The FCSA Official Target.

A miss, therefore, will be considered any round that does not touch the target paper.

Fifty Caliber Shooter Association

Official Match Rules

Advisory Opinion 8-2

That the FCSA Board of Directors interprets the reference to “numerical score” when used in reference to the section on Scoring in the Rules of Competition to mean; that the score of four (4) will be used in determining the total accumulation of points.

Hits on the target, beyond the 5 ring will have a numeric value of 4; they will be regarded as ‘on target’ and will be used for group measurement.
