Sunday Meditation

At a particularly dark time in his life “David encouraged himself in the Lord his God (1 Sam. 30:6). I don’t doubt that he did this by reminding himself of all that God had done for him. “Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all of His benefits” (Psalm 103:2). It’s encouraging to remember how God worked in the lives of His chosen ones in Scripture. Recounting the history of God’s deliverances recorded in Old and New Testaments, brings us profit and pleasure. But we have histories of our own if we’ll make effort to remember them—maybe not as impressive as those of Bible history, but impressive enough. We used to encourage ourselves in church by singing “Count your blessings; Name them one by one; Count your many blessings, See what God has done.” That’s still excellent advice. Gratitude is a most satisfying, sanctifying, and health-giving emotion. All for Jesus, Richard

Stephen Maxwell July 18

Singing for Transformation: New Voices

Since 2015, Stephen Maxwell has served as worship minister for the North Atlanta Church of Christ. He is passionate about worship and sharing the Good News of Christ through singing, speaking and teaching. Stephen has served local congregations in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Oklahoma, Texas, Alabama and Tennessee, and is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Christian Ministry at Harding Graduate School of Theology in Memphis, TN. He was formerly in the internationally known Christian music group Acappella, touring Europe, Africa, South America and the United States, singing in every state but Hawaii. Stephen and his wife Alasha are raising three growing boys, Jonah, Judah and Josiah. Contact Stephen at stephen.maxwell@nacofc.org.

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. If your child has an allergy, please let us know, as we sometimes serve a snack. Parent's; your children will return to their seats during the closing announcements by our elders. We pray that this time will be a blessing for you & your children at Newnan Church of Christ!
