

Patricia Mae Fisher

(March 20, 1924 - March 23, 2014)

Patricia M. Fisher, age 90 of Kissimmee, FL died Sunday evening, March 23, at her home while under hospice care surrounded by her Florida friends.

She was born March 20, 1924 in Lake Twp. at the home of her parents, the late Robert and Vivian (Bostwick) Heasty.

Pat left Huron County in 1950 and lived in Detroit for 25 years. She moved to Ohio until 1986 when she moved to Maryland to manage a home for the mentally challenged for State of Maryland. After retiring, she moved to Falling Waters, WV, then in 2000, she moved to Kissimmee, Florida.

Pat was a member of Sherwood Community Chapel in Florida, a former member of the Berkley Baptist Church and the Human Development Council in Hagerstown, MD and was a great animal lover.

Surviving are granddaughters, Kelly Ward of Ohio and Lisa (Steve) Jones of Florida; two great grandchildren, Bradley and Carey; two sisters, Georgina (Chick) Kreh of Kinde and Maude Heck of Pigeon and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were three sons, Clifford Ward, Robert Ward and David Ward; a grandson, Charles Ward and two sisters, Zella Weaver and Roberta Stahl.

Funeral services will be conducted 11:00 AM Friday, March 28, at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton. Rev. Karen Bouverette, staff chaplain will officiate with burial in Caseville Twp. Cemetery. Friends may call from 10 AM until the time of services. In lieu of flowers please send donations to Cornerstone Hospice, 8009 S. Orange Avenue, Orlando, FL 32809

