

Outpatient Services

Age appropriate Outpatient Treatment services provide a combination of approaches that must include but are not limited to individual, group and family counseling. This program offers comprehensive, coordinated and defined services that may vary in intensity. Services are designed to focus on restoring, developing or enhancing a person's life coping abilities.