

Bio: Robert Gibbons

Robert Gibbons was elected Councilman to the Town of Orchid Council in November of 2014 for a four year term. He also represents the town as a board member the Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities and the Ocean Residences Condominium Association at Orchid Island, Inc.

Councilman Gibbons is a graduate of Fordham Law School and practiced law for 42 years. For most of his career he was a partner at Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, a major international law firm headquartered in New York City. He represented corporations, investment banks, lending institutions and governmental entities in the development and financing of industrial facilities and public infrastructure projects in the US and abroad, including federal, state, municipal and other governmental entities throughout the U.S. (e.g., municipal electric utilities of Jacksonville and Orlando, Florida), as well as foreign governments (e.g., Hungary and the Czech Republic).

He has resided in Orchid for the past 15 years with his wife, Judy. The couple have three children and seven grandchildren.
