103. Cranswick Estate Shiraz, Barossa Valley 2015 £4.95 £6.95 £9.50 £13.50 £24.75
Raspberry and stewed plums with sweet vanilla in oak upfront on the flavoursome palate with savoury mulberry, black cherry and hints of liquorice spice, structured with fine tannins

104. Springhill Merlot, Irvine, Eden Valley, 2015 £5.95 £7.95 £10.95 £16.00 £29.25
Plums, raspberry, chocolate and a little vanilla oak all beautifully balanced. Simply stunning!

105. Los Hermanos Homenaje Crittenden Estate 2013 £29.75
A blend of Tempranillo (42%), Mataro (38%) and Grenache (20%). Characters of plums, cherries and Spice fill the nose. The Aromas lead into a firm dry palate of blackberries and dark chocolate. In Spanish terms this wine has been produced in the "joven" or youthful style- meaning it exhibits only the vibrant fruit characters of Tempranillo without the encumbrances of sweet or toasty oak.

106. Baby Bush Mourvedre 2011 £29.25
The vineyard was established with cuttings from the 1853 mourvedre planting (the oldest in the world); light, bright crimson, the medium-bodied palate has attractive red berry, spicy fruit, with none of the fearsome tannins the variety can produce.

107. Elderton Estate Shiraz, Barossa Valley 2012 £32.75
Plum, blackberry and brambles dominate here. The palate is smoothly-textured and although the concentration is equal to the Greenock One, the wine is more opulent with a rounder, velvety more approachable feel. Fruit and spice linger on the finish.

134. Peachy Canyon Zinfandel

Incredible Red, Paso Robles, 2014 £5.75 £7.50 £10.75 £15.00 £26.75

Strawberry and raspberry aromas with a hint of black pepper. Round and supple, good balance and acidity with a food friendly savoury element.

Peachy Canyon's 18 HA of vineyards are particularly renowned for the individuality and vibrancy of their zinfandels. Zinfandel is California's most distinctive red grape and is one of the few that is considered one of their "own", even though it originated in Europe.

After vinification, Zinfandel wines are often matured in American Oak, which gives them a vanilla dimension. There is no single flavour character that can be associated with the grape – it can produce light, jammy, almost Beaujolais- type wines, redolent of freshly crushed berries, through to full-bodied, robust, oak aged wines brimming with ripe, peppery, cassis-like fruits. The best can age marvellously.

136. Bonny Doon Le Cigare Volant, Santa Cruz, 2009

£35.75

Grenache from our former Ca' del Solo estate (a quarter of the blend) adds rich black fruit flavours and a discreet spiciness. Syrah is principally sourced from Bien Nacido vineyard in Santa Maria Valley, which produces the closest analogue we have found to a Northern Rhône Syrah—tannic and meaty in the lower registers; peppery, fruitful and delicately floral in the top, all the while showing great balance and harmony. A small amount of ultra-low-yielding hilltop Biodynamic Syrah comes from the Chequera vineyard on the west side of Paso Robles. A select group of non-irrigated, centenarian Contra Costa vineyards continues to provide Mourvèdre for Cigare. A touch of Cinsault provides a very particular fragrance of flowers and aromatic herbs.

137. The Crusher Clarksburg Pinot Noir, 2013

Deep ruby red color, with a stunning array of blackcurrant, blackberry, and dried herbs that are layered with hints of black tea and black pepper. 149. Lunta Torrontes, Mendel, Cafayate, 2013 £22.95

Intense and very floral and fruity. As it is characteristic of this very aromatic grape, we can find white flowers and some rose petals, but the most predominant aromas are the citric notes that confer the wine freshness and vivacity. We aim to show this the fresh side of the original grape and some little complexity as well.

150. Pulenta La Flor Sauvignon Blanc, Alto Alegre 2014 £4.95 £6.95 £9.50 £13.50 £24.75

Pear, touch of nettle and green apple. Citrus notes more apparent on the palate with an attractive glycerol mouth feel and good level of concentration. Attractive, fresh example of a Sauvignon from Mendoza.

151. Pulenta Estate Pinot Gris, Mendoza, 2014 £22.75

White stone fruit and plenty of citrus notes coming through on the nose and the palate. Zesty and lively acidity. Good concentration and length- refreshing.

Argentinean Red

152. Mendel, Malbec, Mendoza, 2013 £6.75 £8.95 £12.50 £18.00 £33.75

The colour is intense, bright inky and ruby. Musky cassis, plum and dark chocolate on the nose, lifted by minty and mineral nuances. Fine-grained and firm in the mouth, with a restrained sweetness to its black raspberry and smoky mineral flavours.

153. Pulenta Estate Merlot, Mendoza, 2011 £29.75

Ripe, juicy red fruits dominate here with lots of cherry and spice aromatics. The palate is generously supple, with ripe tannins and lively acidity. Medium length and concentration.
