A Note from Rick: Markets at TLA were relatively stable last week and there is not much new to report. The real story I guess is the weather. It sounds like we are in for some record breaking cold temperatures and wind chills. Scary stuff for the animals that are out in it and the people that simply have to brave the cold to take care of them. I'm sure everyone is trying to do what they can to keep animals out of the wind, give extra bedding, provide more feed and do what we can to keep water flowing and not have frozen tanks. It's going to be difficult this week. All farmers are in our thoughts and prayers with these frigid temperatures. Stay safe and we will see you next week at TLA! I'm sure we will be talking about that day in January 2019 for many years to come.

All of us could take a lesson from the weather..... it pays no attention to criticism! -Unknown
