

ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 29-February 5, 2018

STUDENTS

- Over the next few weeks, there will be a number of library closures due to special events. Please review the signs on the library door so that you are aware and can plan accordingly. As always, please let your librarians know about any academic emergencies on those days, and we will do our best to help.
- The Louisiana Teen Reader's Choice deadline has been extended for one week due to the days missed for weather across the state. That's one more week to read at least two of the titles in order to vote and attend the party where we will provide snacks and draw for door prizes!! Voting will occur on February 5th and 6th, and the party will take place in the library at activity period on February 7th. Happy reading!
- The Utopia staff is selling SHOUT OUTS for the February edition of the paper. For only $1 you can write a brief message to your best friend, the love of your life, your favorite teacher, or your mom! Shout Outs will be featured in a special section of February edition. This will be the first hard-copy issue, and we need your support to make it happen. Newspaper staff members can take your information, or you can see Miss McCalister. Shout out to Mr. Ilgenfritz for doing such an awesome job! See how easy that was? Purchase your newspaper Shout Out today!
- Magnet teachers will be offering an ACT prep course from 4:00-4:50 for juniors February 13th-March 8th on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursdays culminating with a full-length test Saturday, March 10. Details about cost and course sign-up will follow, but mark your calendar if you are interested.
