

Warm Nights

An inter-denominational outreach program providing:

- ✝ a hot dinner

✝ a nutritious breakfast
- ✝ a warm, safe bed

✝ a bag lunch

for 25-30 homeless individuals and families from Prince George's County.

Warm Nights will be hosted February 21 - February 28, 2016 at St. Pius X Church

This is an opportunity for you, your family or your group (scouts, school class, bridge club, prayer group, etc.) to help others during this cold season.

Each night, from Feb. 21st to Feb. 27th, homeless individuals will arrive at St. Pius X Catholic Church, at 7 pm in need of a hot dinner, a warm bed, and a nutritious breakfast before leaving again at 6 am the next morning, with a lunch in hand.

You can participate in any of 9 different ways.

1. Be part of a team that prepares dinner.
2. Provide bag lunches.
3. Sleep overnight (this is most essential).
4. Donate money to help purchase needed food, bedding, paper products, etc. Please make checks payable to St. Pius X and place checks or cash in an envelope marked "Warm Nights", in the collection basket on Jan. 23/24 and Jan. 30/31.
5. Help with setup on Sunday, February 21st or breakdown on Sunday, February 28th. (Parents must accompany any HS students.)
6. Activity/Seminar provided—Each night we provide a special program or activity. Can you sew? Are you a Doctor, Manicurist, Nurse, Lawyer, Computer Person etc? Fill in #6 below and we will call you to discuss what service you may be able to provide.
7. Drive guest to dental office in Bowie for free dental services.
8. Escort and assist guests with laundry (must be able to climb steps).
9. Volunteer to chaperone guests in Fr. Nelson Hall on Saturday, February 27th. Guests remain with us all day on Saturday.
