Florence's Restaurant was established in 1952. When the doors opened at its original location, 916 N.E. 4th Street, my idea was to serve some of my favorite, homemade, family recipes I learned growing up on the farm in Boley, Oklahoma. The business grew and in 1969 the restaurant relocated to its current location. I've added a few new items and created some new recipes throughout the years, but I've mainly stayed true to my original plan, Good, County Food for the Soul. Thank you for your more than 60 years of support. We look forward to serving you again soon.
