

Reggie Stacy Wins First Preliminary in Levy County Fair Karaoke Competition

Winners of Saturday's Karaoke competition in Williston are Darcey Tisdale in second place, Reggie Stacey first and Jackie McComb third. They will advance to the Levy County Fair finals in April. More preliminary Levy County Fair competitions are planned.

By Terry Witt
Senior Staff Writer

Aspiring singers got their taste of fame Saturday night at the first preliminary Levy County Fair karaoke contest at the Junction Tavern in Williston.

Reggie Stacy of Bronson won first place, Darcey Tisdale of Bronson second place and Jackie McComb of Williston third. All three will automatically advance to the final competition at 3:30 p.m. on April 13 at the Levy County Fair.

Those who didn't win at Saturday's competition can compete again at future preliminary competitions along with other contestants. The entry fee is $5.

The next adult preliminary karaoke competition is 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 1 at the AmVet Post 444 in Williston. There will also be a preliminary karaoke adult competition on 8 p.m. on Friday, March 7 at the Sea Breeze Restaurant in Cedar Key.

Contestants in the Jr. karaoke competition will perform at 3:30 p.m., Feb. 13 at the Fair. There will be no preliminary competitions.

The 2014 Levy County Fair is set to take place April 10-13 at the Williston Municipal Airport.

Other karaoke contestants at Saturday's completion included Kevin Maillard of Williston, Helen Boor of Williston, Bill Linnell of Williston, DiAnna Linnell of Williston, Beau Sadler of Williston and Pete Burger of Williston.

The contest was judged by Fair President Jim Smith, Fair Secretary Debra Jones and Kat Tenant.

Karaoke contestants are evaluated on singing ability, technical difficulty, song delivery, stage presence, personal appearance and contact with the audience and judges.

The fair will have rides for the kids (and adults) who like that sort of thing and livestock competition from April 11-13.

Judging the preliminary karaoke competition Saturday in Williston are Debra Jones, Fair President Jim Smith and Kat Tenant. The competition was a preliminary for the Levy County Fair karaoke finals in April.

See the Fair's website for additional information – levycountyfair.com.