Youth Ministry

THANK YOU

Caty and I would like to take a moment and just say thank you so much to everyone here at St. Pius X. We are still mending our hearts but we have been COMPLETELY blown away by the prayers, cards, meals, texts, calls, etc. that people have done to help us get through this. Caty and I could not have gotten through last week without the help by so many. Thank you to everyone!!

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, August 17th – MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH 6:00-7:30pm

THURSDAY NIGHT, August 18th – HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH 6:00-7:30pm

We are so blessed here at St. Pius X to have so many people who love youth. One big one who is extremely close to my heart is my former Youth Minister, mentor, and friend Charlie Hardesty. While Caty and I continue to mourn the loss of Lee, he will be leading August 17th and 18th night. He is THE BEST at Youth Ministry in the Diocese and taught me everything I know. Your youth will be loved greatly as they will be in good hands while I mourn with my family.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

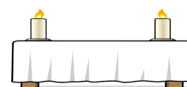

St. Stephen of Hungary | August 16

Born a pagan in the 10th century Saint Stephen was baptized as a boy when his father converted to Christianity. Saint Stephen married Gisela, daughter of Duke Henry II of Bavaria who would become Saint Henry II. He succeeded his father as leader and began to transform the nation into a Christian kingdom.

Pope Sylvester II proclaimed him the first king of Hungary in 1001, sending him a crown and gold processional cross. The crown, made in the Byzantine style, has become a symbol of Hungarian nationhood.

King Stephen's reign was a relatively peaceful and prosperous time. He outlawed paganism, mandated church building, and tithing for support of the parish, and commanded all to marry except clergy and religious. He founded a Benedictine monastery, and Hungary became an important place along the route to the Holy Land for many pilgrims.

Unfortunately, Stephen's son and heir died in a hunting accident, causing much conflict over the succession when the saint died. Eventually the kingdom was won back for Christendom and father and son were canonized in 1083 by Pope St. Gregory VII. Saint Stephen I is now patron saint of Hungary.
