Brass & Woodwinds Rules and Guidelines

1. Participants may perform in one or more classes, but cannot enter twice in the same class. For example, a participant cannot enter twice in the Canadian class.
2. Performers must tune their instruments prior to entering the stage. On stage, performers have only a brief time before the performance to make small tuning adjustments if necessary.
3. Participants cannot use recorded accompaniment.
4. To be eligible for an award or scholarship, performers are required to enter in a minimum of two different classes. For example, a participant can enter in the Canadian Music class, and the Pre-Romantic Era class, and so forth.

Please see the General Rules and Information Guidelines for important information about the Festival.
