Love One Another

Have we ever shed the tears of another –
Really gotten under the load?
Suffered pain and agony of a brother
Who walks a dark and lonely road?
Do we love our brother?

Do we readily give to those folks who ask,
And joyfully help when we can?
Are we ready and willing for any task,
Though it may interrupt our plan?
Do we love one another?

Friend, are we willing to go that second mile,
Helping any way that we can?
When faced with a frown, do we lift with a smile,
And encourage our fellowman?
Do we really, truly love?

Or are we too preoccupied with our own
To stop by the side of the road,
And offer a helping hand to one unknown
Who struggles with a heavy load?
Do we love only our own?

Our Lord teaches us to love one another,
And always go the extra mile,
Giving and forgiving, for He gave His life...
For every man, woman and child.
Let us Love One Another.
